REVISED SCHEDULING ORDER

Plaintiffs Valerie Plame Wilson and Simon & Schuster, Inc. ("Plaintiffs") and defendants

J. Michael McConnell, Central Intelligence Agency and Gen. Michael V. Hayden

("Defendants") hereby stipulate and agree to the following revised schedule concerning the

2. Because Defendant CIA, in accordance with Scheduling Conference with the Court on June 12, 2007, is preparing a certified copy of the administrative record, but the table of contents for that document was not available to plaintiffs until after 5 pm June 22, 2007, and a copy of the certified record will not be available until June 25, 2007 at the earliest, and because the parties are seeking to resolve certain outstanding issues about sealing issues with the record, an additional forty eight hours (two days) is needed by the parties to address those issues and for the filing of their respective papers.

3. The additional two days requested to the Stipulated Scheduled Order entered on June 18, 2007 will not unduly delay full completion of the briefing of the motions or applications for injunctive relief.

4. No prior request for an extension of time to the Stipulated Scheduling Order has been made to the Court.

5. Plaintiffs shall serve upon Defendants and file their motion for summary judgment and any application for injunctive relief no later than June 28, 2007.
