ORDER

08 Civ. 9064 (NRB)

On October 23, 2008, pursuant to a verified complaint, plaintiff Transfield ER Cape Ltd. ("Transfield") procured a Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment pursuant to Rule Transfield ER Cape Ltd. v. Industrial Carriers Inc. et al B of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims ("Rule B") in the amount of $6,414,791.86 against defendants Industrial Carriers Inc. ("ICI") and Weaver Investment Inc. ("Weaver"). The verified complaint alleged, inter alia, that Weaver was at all material times the alter ego of ICI. Verified Complaint ¶¶ 18-27.

On November 19, 2008, garnishee BNP Paribas restrained funds belonging to Weaver in the amount of $425,503.49 in accordance with the Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment. On March 6, 2009, Weaver moved to vacate the Process of Attachment arguing either (1) that vacatur is appropriate if Weaver is not the alter ego of ICI because Transfield would not have a valid prima facie maritime claim against Weaver, a requirement for Rule B attachment, see Aqua Stoli Shipping Ltd. v. Gardner Smith Pty Ltd., 460 F.3d 434, 445 (2d Cir. 2006); or (2) that vacatur is appropriate if Weaver is the alter ego of ICI because Weaver would have been "found within the district" at the time of filing under Rule B(1)(a) due to ICI's November 16, 2005 registration with the New York State Department of State, see STK Panocean (UK) Co., Ltd. v. Glory Wealth Shipping Pte Ltd. et al., No. 08-6131-CV, 2009 WL 704722 (2d Cir. Mar. 19, 2009) (holding that such registration causes a party to be "found within the district" under Rule B(1)(a) and, therefore, not properly subject to Rule B attachment).

Because we find -- as multiple courts in this district have found<sup>1</sup> -- that if a party is "found within the district" under Rule B(1)(a) so too is its alter ego,<sup>2</sup> it is hereby ordered that

<sup>2</sup> Under Seawind, a party is "found within the district" for the purposes of Rule B if it can both "be found within the district in terms of jurisdiction" and "found for service of process." Seawind Compania, S.A. v. Crescent Line, Inc., 320 F.2d 580, 582 (2d Cir. 1963) (citations and quotations omitted). With regard to the first Seawind prong, the Second all property restrained pursuant to the Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment dated October 23, 2008 be released and that the Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment is vacated as to all defendants.<sup>3</sup>

Circuit has held that "[i]f personal jurisdiction exists over an individual, personal jurisdiction exists also over his or her corporate alter ego." S.E.C. v. Montle, 65 Fed.Appx. 749, 752 (2d Cir. 2003). With regard to the second Seawind prong, while there does not appear to be Second Circuit authority addressing whether, in the context of maritime attachments, a party's presence for service of process establishes the presence of its alter ego for service of process, we think the better view is that it does.

<sup>3</sup> The Process of Attachment is vacated as to ICI because plaintiff has not attached any of ICI's property in the more than five months that the Process of Attachment has been in operation.
