Dear Judge Maas:

March 14 letter. Sullivan & Cromwell should

We write on behalf of the Standard Chartered Defendants ("Standard Chartered") Similarly regarding the Plaintiffs' March 14, 2014 correspondence requesting that the Court strike the file a expert report of Bradley Ziff. The substantive issues raised in Plaintiffs' letter will be addressed in a coming letter, but we write separately to alert the Court that Plaintiffs' March 14th letter redacted both encloses and refers to materials that have been designated as confidential under the copy of its Stipulation and Order Governing Confidentiality of Discovery Material (the "Confidentiality letter Order") entered by this Court in the Standard Chartered Cases (Dkt. No. 603), and to request that these materials not be made part of the public record. when it responds.

Under the Confidentiality Order, any discovery materials produced in the Adams, USAIS, Standard Chartered Cases that have been designated as confidential, including "all information 3/17/14 contained in or derived from" such materials, shall not be publicly disclosed. (Dkt. No. 603 at 2-5.) Plaintiffs' March 14th letter attaches two expert reports that have been designated as confidential under the Confidentiality Order through inclusion of the legend "Confidential - SC Cases, SDNY." (Dkt. No. 603 at 3.) Further, Plaintiffs' letter itself discusses "information contained in or derived from" those confidential reports. The contents of Plaintiffs' letter are, therefore, also considered confidential under the Confidentiality Order.

For this reason, Standard Chartered respectfully requests that Plaintiffs' March 14th letter and attachments thereto not be entered onto the public record of these proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

Diane McGimsey / SRG
