DEFENDANT DAVID HORN 'S ANSWER TO THE SECOND CONSOLIDATED AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendant David Horn (øHornø), by his attorneys Morvillo, Abramowitz, Grand, Iason, Anello & Bohrer, P.C., hereby answers or otherwise responds to the Second Consolidated Amended Complaint (øSCACö). Horn reserves the right to supplement and amend this Answer and reserves the right to add additional defenses of which he becomes aware through discovery or other investigation.

The filing of this Answer is without waiver of the arguments presented in Hornø Motion to Dismiss, which are expressly adopted herein and asserted against the SCAC.

All allegations not specifically admitted are denied.

To the extent that the contents of PlaintiffsøøGlossary of Defined Termsö are intended to allege a basis for liability on the part of Horn, Horn denies those allegations. To the extent that Plaintiffs utilize group pleading as a basis to impose liability on Horn, Horn denies those allegations.

With respect to the numbered paragraphs of the SCAC, Horn responds as follows:¹

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Horn lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 1, except avers that Fairfield Greenwich Group (öFGGö) is a marketing name used for certain businesses of a group of related entities and denies that FGG marketed and operated the referenced funds.²

2. The allegations in Paragraph 2 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 2.

3. The allegations in Paragraph 3 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 3.

4. The allegations in Paragraph 4 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 4.

5. The allegations in Paragraph 5 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 5, except lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations

¹ Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the SCAC.

² The SCAC characterizes Horn and certain other individuals as öpartnersö of FGG and refers to them collectively as the öFGG partners.ö Horn avers that the term öpartnerö was sometimes used, but Horn and the other referenced individuals were not partners in the legal sense. In fact, Horn was solely an employee of one of the Fairfield entities, and he worked at the firm for only eight months prior to the discovery of the Madoff fraud.

regarding whether at least one Plaintiff is a citizen of a foreign state, and avers that at least one Defendant is a citizen of New York.

6. The allegation in Paragraph 6 states a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 6.

7. The allegations in Paragraph 7 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 7, except avers that one or more of the Defendants resides in this District and the principal place of business of one more Defendants is in this District.

PARTIES

8. The allegations in Paragraph 8 state legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent that a response is required, Horn denies the allegations in Paragraph 8.
