Re: Pasha Anwar, et al. v. Fairfield Greenwich Limited, et al., Master File No. 09-cv-118 (VM); Maridom Ltd. v. Standard Chartered Bank International (Americas) Ltd., Case No. 10-cv-00920

Dear Judge Marrero:

I am counsel for the Plaintiffs in Maridom Ltd. v. Standard Chartered Bank International (Americas) Ltd. whom I will refer to in this letter as the "Maridom Plaintiffs".

In its Decision and Order ("Order") dated October 4, 2010, DF 543, this Court denied the Defendant's motion to dismiss in all respects except as to what the Court characterized in its Order as an allegation that the Defendant affirmatively misrepresented that Fairfield would manage the investments when, in fact, Madoff did. (Order, p. 23) While the Maridom Plaintiffs respectfully submit that this allegation was, in fact, an allegation that the Defendant failed to disclose that Fairfield falsely represented that it would be managing the investments, Am.Cplt., ¶ 23, the Maridom Plaintiffs are not seeking an amendment or clarification of that point and therefore will not be filing a paper showing why an amendment attempting to cure the pleading deficiency would not be futile. See Order at 42, 43. Instead, the Maridom Plaintiffs will rest on the allegation that the Defendant failed to disclose that the Fairfield fund was nothing more than a funnel to Madoff, which the Court upheld against the Defendant's argument that it failed to satisfy Rule 9(b). In all other respects, the Maridom Plaintiffs reserve their rights under Rule 15.

Sincerely yours,

Richard E. Brodsky
