Acquirer List

Start accepting Visa today

Contact an acquirer to start the process of accepting Visa. An acquirer is a financial institution or merchant bank. You may wish to contact the bank with which you have your business relationship (your merchant bank), or choose from the following list.

Note: The following tool is provided as a service from Visa to merchants interested in accepting Visa for payment. Visa cannot guarantee or otherwise ensure that any financial institution below will agree to proceed with a merchant relationship. If a relationship is established, its terms are entirely between you and the financial institution.
