Re: Gucci v. Durango Merchant Services, LLC., et. al.
SDNY 09-CV-6925

Dear Judge Baer:

I represent defendant Durango Merchant Services, LLC. in the above-referenced matter. We write to inform the Court that Durango and Gucci have settled their dispute with regard to whether Gucci would have access to the hard drives of Durango's computers for inspection.

Specifically, Durango has agreed to produce "images" or copies of the subject computers as soon as practicably possible, provided that the images do not include any privileged attorney-client communications.

As such, Durango requests that the evidentiary hearing scheduled for Wednesday, June 30, 2010 at 11:00am be adjourned.

Should the Court find it helpful, counsel remains available for a telephone conference at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

Todd Wengrovsky
