Jennifer:

In its continued effort to search all of its records, electronic or otherwise, Durango came across a previously non-reviewed general "customer service box" of e-mail communications regarding merchants and prospective merchants. Specifically, the function of the box is to store leads and first response e-mails for the purpose of determining who is working a lead should a prospective merchant call in (i.e. to insure that the first agent to bring in a particular lead gets proper credit for same). Though this "box" was used for less than two years, it was not deleted in the ordinary course of business for the above reason, especially since any general communications in such box would not have sensitive customer information, i.e. social security numbers, bank account numbers, etc.

As such, though its probative value to the litigation is questionable, Durango is herewith producing the relevant contents of the customer service box in good faith, and this is the first of 11 eleven e-mails containing same, broken up due to file size. Please treat all such documents as CONFIDENTIAL under the Protective Order.

Also attached, per your request, please find a Word file containing the list of search terms used by Durango in this process. Please feel free to reply with any questions-
