Steph...I can't read either of those attachments just a bunch of script, can you just do a screen print of the card totals? Go to "Transactions" Select "SETTLED" for the date period (all of May), then select VISA only, next do a report for MC only, add those 2 #'s up...

Thank you,

Hi Nathan,

Here is the month of May but Discover and AmEx are included. April isn't good enough but as I said I was shutting down my adwords so I didn't go over budget. Should I try to go over so that I can get a increase or can we ask them now anyway? Let me know what to do so that next month I can start out the right way.

Thanks!

Stephanie...volume limits are finicky...if you are doing $10K less than your limit then they don't usually want to give an increase, if you are within $5K then that's close enough.

Talk w/ you soon...and yes we need the URL live before we can get it added...

Thank you,

Thanks Nathan. I will get the forms back to you but do you need to wait until the new site is live to present it to the banks?

Also, I will get the Visa and MC numbers for you later today, however I have stopped my adwords (which is where I market and get all of my business from) around the third week in fear of going over each month so they may be lower than the limit. Is that a problem? I guess wait to see what I have for totals and we can go from there.

I have a appointment that I need to go to and won't be back until around lunch and will get the numbers for you then.

Thanks for all your help!

Stephanie,
Adding URL's to your account isn't a big problem, since your "DBA" is Strive Handbags. Just let me know, we need the forms attached for the different banks, the Frontline one unfortunately needs to be notarized.

For volume...I need to know how much Visa & MC volume you are at for the past 2 months on each account, can you look up ONLY Visa & MC volume from the transaction reports from Authorize.net? (just select to search by those card types only in transaction search for the monthly totals).

Thank you,

Hi Nathan,

I wanted to ask you if we can add a new domain name,

www.celebritystylebags.com

The reason for this is I received a email from Louis Vuitton for thepurses.com. That is more than half of my business.

The new site isn't live yet but I wanted to keep you informed. Can you let me know if we can add this or not? I will keep thepurses.com for a while too though.

Also, when can I ask for a increase from the banks on how much I can process each month? It would make a big difference especially when running two sites.

Thanks!

Stephanie Walker
