1. Name of applicant is Antonio Mallet.

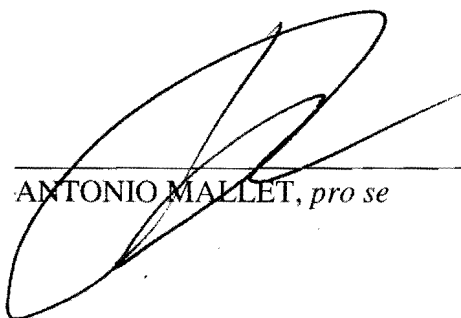

2. Explain why you need a lawyer in this case. I need a lawyer assigned to assist me in litigating the serious issues dealing with evidence the Plaintiff requested. My case meets the criteria for appointment of counsel under Cooper and Hodge (likely merit, independent efforts at obtaining counsel, need for factual investigation, complex legal issues, etc.) It appears that the Plaintiff meets at least two of these criteria's. He has dutifully albeit unsuccessfully sought representation by counsel. Additionally, the thrust of his § 1983 action is obtaining ballistic and fingerprint evidence and, in present counsel's experience, obtaining evidence is something that lawyers can do far more successfully than imprisoned pro se litigants. See, also, Washington v. Smith, 219 F.3d 620, 631 (7th Cir. 2000)(expecting incarcerated prisoner to produce witnesses wholly unreasonable). Plaintiff request oral argument on his motion to dismiss via tele-conference, or by appointed counsel.

3. I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Pursuant to 28 U. S .C. § 1746, the information herein contained is true and accurate under the penalty of perjury.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The Court has received the attached application for the appointment of counsel. The Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit has articulated factors that should guide the Court's discretion to appoint counsel to represent an indigent litigant under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. See Hodge v. Police Officers, 802 F.2d 58, 61-62 (2d Cir. 1986); Jackson v. Moscicki, No. 99 Civ. 2427 (JGK), 2000 WL 511642, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 27, 2000). For the Court to order the appointment of counsel, the plaintiff must, as a threshold matter, demonstrate that his claim has substance or a likelihood of success on the merits. See Hodge, 802 F.2d at 61-62. Only then can the Court consider the other factors appropriate to determination of whether counsel should be appointed: "plaintiff's ability to obtain representation independently, and his ability to handle the case without assistance in the light of the required factual investigation, the complexity of the legal issues, and the need for expertly conducted cross-examination to test veracity." Cooper v. A. Sargenti Co., Inc., 877 F.2d 170, 172 (2d Cir. 1989). The plaintiff has failed to show that his claims are likely to have merit, and the application for the appointment of counsel is therefore denied without prejudice.

SO ORDERED.
