I have never transferred any such rights in or to any of the Material to anyone else and will never purport to do so in the future.

2. I will never file with the U.S. Copyright Office or any governmental or public agency, and will never assert or assist or cooperate with others in asserting on my behalf or in claiming rights through me, any claim to ownership of the copyrights, any copyright renewal rights, or any other rights in the Material, or in making any objection to Marvel's complete and unrestricted right to use and exploit said Material in any form, manner or medium Marvel may desire.

3. Pursuant to the foregoing, I specifically retract, release, abandon and disclaim any rights to the copyright renewal term for "Spider-Man", "The Incredible Hulk" and "The Fantastic Four" as alleged in my attorney's letter to Marvel dated April 15, 1985. I will never repeat or reassert these or similar claims to any portion or feature of the Material, or otherwise claim rights in or to the Material inconsistent with Marvel's complete and unrestricted ownership of all copyright and other rights therein.
