BRADY MOTION

The above-named Defendant, in accordance with the principles of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 66 (1967), and Giglio v. United States, 305 U.S. 150 (1972), moves this Court to order the prosecution to make inquiry and disclose all information and evidence that may be materially favorable to the Defendant or which may lead to evidence which is materially favorable to the

CLERK OF COURTS

Defendant either of a direct or impeaching nature which is in the prosecution's possession, or the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence could become known to the prosecution. Defendant further moves the Court to require the Prosecuting Attorney(s) for the Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit to produce and have at trial and at any and all non-jury hearings in this case, the information hereafter specified.

The following are specifically requested by the Defendant:

1. Any and all statements allegedly made by the Defendant, whether oral, written, taped, recorded or in whatever form, that the prosecution may introduce into evidence or rely upon at the trial of the case.
2. Any and all written, recorded, or oral statements made by any prospective prosecution witnesses in the case, including police officers and experts. This includes summaries of interviews with such prospective prosecution witnesses. Defendant has included this request because he believes that an examination of such statements or summaries will reveal conflicting or contradictory information which will affect the credibility of the prosecution's witnesses.
3. The total and complete list of all persons interviewed in the entire investigation in this case and the name of the person or persons conducting such interview, together with a copy of the interview or a correct account of same. If more than one interview has been made as to any person, then a copy and result of each interview should be furnished.
4. A meaningful address should be furnished by the State as to all persons interviewed by the authorities in this case so that Defendant might have the opportunity to determine what exculpatory or beneficial evidence each witness might have.
5. Any an all written or recorded statements and all summaries or memorandum of any oral or written statements made by any witness or potential witness in this case to police or prosecuting attorneys. Authorities: In the case of Jencks v. United States, 353 U.S. 657, 77 S.Ct. 1007, 1 L.ED.2d 1103 (1957), the U.S. Supreme Court held that the government, upon the defendants' request, had to produce any statements by government witnesses for the defendants to inspect and to possibly use for impeachment. The Court held that all statements, whether apparently contradictory or not, would have to be produced since only the defendants were really in a position to determine the value of the statements to the defense.

6. Any and all tape or electronic recordings, written statements or summaries thereof by any officer or employee of the State, County, Sheriff's, District Attorney's or Solicitor's office with reference to all persons interviewed, whether they are to be called as a witness for the State or not.

7. The criminal record of the Defendant, including but not limited to federal, state, or local arrest records.

8. A complete and detailed list of the criminal records and any summaries thereof of all state's witnesses, whether the State intends to call these witnesses at the trial of the case or not, including any and all charges which may now be pending against them and which have not yet been officially disposed of by plea, trial or otherwise.

9. All records and information revealing prior convictions or guilty verdicts or juvenile adjudications attributed to each witness who may be called by the prosecution, including but not limited to "rap sheets", or federal, state or local arrest records.

10. All records and information revealing prior misconduct or bad acts attributed to any witness.

11. All consideration, or promises of consideration, given to or on the behalf of the witness or expected or hoped for by the witness. By "consideration" Defendant refers to absolutely anything, whether bargained for or not, which arguably could be of value or use to a witness or to persons of concern to the witness, including but not limited to, formal or informal, direct or indirect, leniency, favorable treatment or recommendations, immunity grants, or other assistance with respect to any pending or potential criminal, parole, probation, pardon, clemency, civil, tax court, court of claims, administrative or other dispute with the State or with any other authority or with any other parties, criminal, civil or tax immunity grants, relief from forfeiture, payments of money, rewards or fees, witness fees or special witness fees, provision of food, clothing, shelter, transportation, legal services or other benefits, assistance to members of witness' family or associates of witness; placement in a "witness protection program," informer status of the witness, or anything else which arguably could reveal an interest, motive or bias in the witness in favor of the prosecution or against the defense, or act as an inducement to testify or to color testimony.

12. a) Any and all threats, express or implied, direct or indirect, or other coercion made or directed against any potential witness; b) any and all criminal prosecutions, investigations, or potential prosecutions pending or which could be brought against any potential witness; c) any and all probationary, parole, deferred prosecution or custodial status of any potential witness, and d) any and all civil, tax court, court of claims, administrative, or other pending or potential legal disputes or transactions with any potential witness or over which any potential witness has real, apparent or perceived influence.

13. Whether any person interviewed in reference to this case or the investigation thereof has in any way or manner directly or indirectly been subjected to any coercion, duress, threats, intimidation, punishment, unequal treatment or discrimination and whether any of such persons have been promised immunity from prosecution, leniency or any form of reward, inducement or offer of help of assistance has been held out, offered or made to him.

14. All other records and/or information which arguably could be helpful or useful to the defense in impeaching or otherwise detracting from the probative force or the prosecution's evidence or which arguably could lead to such records or information. This request specifically includes information as to the any potential witness' psychiatric history or "basic mental trouble"; the use of hypnosis or hypnotic age regression; the use of "lie detectors", polygraphs, or psychological stress evaluators; and the use of narcotic or other drugs.

15. The same records and information requested in items 1 through 14 with respect to each non-witness declarant whose statements are offered in evidence.

16. Any and all items seized as a result of any and all searches of the Defendant or of any property in which he had a reasonable expectation of privacy.

17. The existence and identification of each occasion on which a potential prosecution witness has testified before any court, grand jury, or other investigative body, or otherwise narrated the facts of this case.

18. The names, addresses, current telephone numbers, criminal records, and statements or interview reports of those persons who may have some knowledge of the facts of this case but will not testify as witnesses for the prosecution at trial.

19. Any and all statements made by the Defendant to third persons, including investigate agents whose identities were then unknown to the Defendant, which are in the possession of the prosecution or other agencies of the State.

20. The circumstances surrounding the statements referred to in number 19.

21. 24. The results and reports of any scientific or other tests, analyses, experiments or studies made by either the Georgia State Crime Lab or the FBI Crime Lab or any private agency or person, or state official or agency in any manner whatsoever made in connection with this case.
25. Any and all written reports, documents or any physical evidence that is in possession of the State or the prosecution relative to this case or the investigation thereof.
26. A detailed description of all physical items other than documents and pictures which the prosecution anticipates using in the trial of the Defendant and the exact place where and under whose custody such items are being held.

of the statements intends to call as a witness at trial, pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 17-16-7 and the Georgia Reciprocal Discovery Statute.

MOTION TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

The Defendant, by and through the law firm of Burns, Speights & Grisham, P.C., and specifically, Ross D. Grisham, and moves the Court for an Order reserving the right to file such additional motions as the future progress of this case merit.

As grounds for this Motion, Defendant states as follows:

Informal discovery is ongoing and incomplete. Problems of availability, as well as propriety of revealing certain information in the possession of the State, may arise upon which Defendant may be compelled to file formal motions with the Court.

The inordinate complexity of the charges brought by the State against the Defendant compel continuing analysis of materials discovered in process of discovery which may well lead to the necessity of additional substantive motions.

MOTION FOR DISCOVERY, INSPECTION, PRODUCTION AND COPYING OF EVIDENCE FAVORABLE TO THE ACCUSED AND IN CAMERA INSPECTION WITH INCORPORATED AUTHORITY

The defendant respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and Article 1, Section 1, Paragraphs 1, 11, and 14 of the Georgia Constitution, as construed and applied in the case of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1970) and its progeny including, Giles v. Maryland, 386 U.S. 66 (1967); Giglio v., United States, 405 U.S. 105 (1972); and, Hicks v. State, 232 Ga. 393 (1974), to order the District Attorney to permit defense counsel to inspect and copy all evidence in the possession and control of the State which may be favorable to the defendant and material to the issues of guilt or punishment or could reasonably weaken or affect any evidence proposed to be introduced against the defendant at trial or at sentencing. The evidence sought is to include, but not be limited to:

1.

All evidence, including statement of individuals, physical evidence or test results indicating or tending to indicate that the defendant is not guilty of the offense charged or mitigating on the issue of sentence.

2.

All statements of any witness which contradict in any way the statements of other witnesses or which contradict other statement(s) made by that witness.

CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT
PATTY BAKER

3.

All reports, memoranda or other information in possession of the State which contain information exculpatory, helpful, favorable, or arguably favorable to the defendant on guilt or innocence or as to sentence.

4.

The criminal records and any lists or summary reflecting criminal records of all persons whom the State intends to call as witnesses in the trial of the defendant or at sentencing.

5.

Memoranda, documents or reports of any scientific tests or experiments or studies made in connection with the above-styled case, including any polygraph examinations of any witness, which may be arguably favorable to the defense.

6.

All material now known to the State or which may become known which is exculpatory in nature or favorable to the accused or which may lead to exculpatory material. This request includes reports of any investigations conducted by the State, or its agents, if individuals other than the defendant.

7.

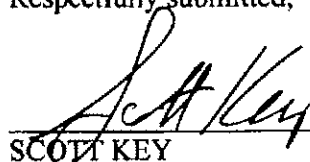

The State is required to reveal to the defense not only information "in its file", but should also be ordered to make inquiry of all law enforcement or other agencies involved in this prosecution and to require those agencies to review their files and to provide to the prosecution any information arguably favorable to the defendant, including information specifically described above. See, e.g., Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 54, 57-61 (1987) (In child molestation case Brady required disclosure of favorable information in the files of the Pennsylvania Children and Youth Services Agency); Freeman v. Georgia, 599 F. 2d 64, 69 (5th Cir., 1975) (State held accountable for information known only to investigating police detective); Brown v. State, 261 Ga. 66, 401 S.E. 2d 492 (1992); Issacs v. State, 259 Ga. 717, 386 S.E. 2d 316 (1989).

The State may well provide to the defense its complete file, including everything requested herein. If not, the defendant does not wish to entrust to the prosecution the unilateral power to ascertain, from its perspective as an advocate, which information is exculpatory and which is not. Accordingly, should the State not provide to the defense for inspection its entire file, the defendant insists on the Court conducting an in camera review of the State's file to identify and isolate information to which the defendant is constitutionally entitled. Tribble v. State, 248 Ga. 274, 275 (1981); Osborn v. State, 161 Ga. App. 132, 137(5) (1982).

WHEREFORE, the defendant respectfully prays this Motion be granted.

The defendant respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and Article 1, Section 1, Paragraphs 1, 11, and 14 of the Georgia Constitution, as construed and applied in the case of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1970) and its progeny including, Giles v. Maryland, 386 U.S. 66 (1967); Giglio v., United States, 405 U.S. 105 (1972); and, Hicks v. State, 232 Ga. 393 (1974), to order the District Attorney to permit defense counsel to inspect and copy all evidence in the possession and control of the State which may be favorable to the defendant and material to the issues of guilt or punishment or could reasonably weaken or affect any evidence proposed to be introduced against the defendant at trial or at sentencing. The evidence sought is to include, but not be limited to:

All evidence, including statement of individuals, physical evidence or test results indicating or tending to indicate that the defendant is not guilty of the offense charged or mitigating on the issue of sentence.

2.

The State may well provide to the defense its complete file, including everything requested herein. If not, the defendant does not wish to entrust to the prosecution the unilateral power to ascertain, from its perspective as an advocate, which information is exculpatory and which is not. Accordingly, should the State not provide to the defense for inspection its entire file, the defendant insists on the Court conducting as in camera review of the State's file to identify and isolate information to which the defendant is constitutionally entitled. Tribble v. State, 248 Ga. 274, 275 (1981); Osborn v. State, 161 Ga. App. 132, 137(5) (1982).

WHEREFORE, the defendant respectfully prays this Motion be granted.

Robert K Hubbard & Rae H Hubbard Surety are held and firmly bound to his Excellency Sonny Perdue, Governor of said State, and his successors in office, in the penal sum written above, for payment whereof we firmly bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally.

CONDITIONS OF BOND

1. If the above bound principal shall personally be and appear before the Superior Court/State Court, or any other Court in which the cause may be transferred or pending, from day to day, and from term to term, to then and there answer to an indictment and/or accusation for the offense(s) named above, or any included or related offenses therein with which he/she may stand charged and shall not depart thence without leave of the Court, then the above obligation to be null and void, else to remain in full force and virtue; and
2. Principal and Surety agree and covenant that this bond is conditioned upon the appearance of the principal before the Court at the time fixed for his/her arraignment as required by the Code of Georgia Sec. 17-6-17 and Sec. 17-7-91, and,
3. To better secure payment of this bond in the event of forfeiture, Principal and Surety agree for themselves, their families and as the head of their respective families to renounce and waive all right and benefit of the homestead exemption laws of this State, including both constitutional and legislative provision, and each of us further assert that we have never taken or availed ourselves of any homestead or exemption under the laws of this State, or of the United States or elsewhere; and Surety expressly intends to charge and encumber said real estate with this bond with which shall become a lien against said property and may be discharged or enforced as provided by law. Surety further affirms that the current, unencumbered value of this property is greater than twice the amount of this bond, exclusive of the homestead exemption.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Principal and Surety have executed this bail bond at Canton, Georgia, Cherokee County on the date above.
