34. Defendants DENY the allegations contained in paragraph "34" of the Amended Complaint and allege Plaintiff Tejada was paid a salary which varied annually during his employment but was always in excess of the minimum requirement of FLSA for an exempt employee.

52. Defendants DENY the allegations contained in paragraph 52 of the Amended Complaint.

AS AND FOR A FIRST AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

54. The Amended Complaint fails to state a valid cause of action.

AS AND FOR A SECOND AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

55. Defendants Nicolo Ottomanelli and Joseph Ottomanelli are not employers as defined under the Fair Labor Standards Act.

AS AND FOR A THIRD AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

56. Defendants Nicolo Ottomanelli and Joseph Ottomanelli are not employers as defined under the New York State Labor Laws.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

57. As to Plaintiff Tejada, said Plaintiff was an exempt employee during the period at issue and therefore is not entitled to overtime compensation inasmuch as Plaintiff was employed in a bona fide executive and/or administrative capacity.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

58. As an exempt employee, Plaintiff Tejada has neither standing to be a Plaintiff in this class or collective action nor does he have a claim cognizable by this Court under the Fair Labor Standards Act or the New York State Labor Laws.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

59. Plaintiffs are not entitled to punitive or liquidated damages under New York State Labor Laws or the Fair Labor Standards Act because the actions and conduct of all named Defendants were at all times taken in good faith and for legitimate and lawful business reasons.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

60. Defendants pay practices are within the requirements of all applicable statutes and regulations of the New York State Department of Labor and U.S. Department of Labor.

AS AND FOR A
EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

61. Plaintiffs are not entitled to punitive and/or liquidated damages under the Fair Labor Standards Act as the actions and conduct of Defendants were at all times taken in good faith and for legitimate and lawful business reasons. Accordingly, pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, Plaintiffs' statute of limitations is two years.

AS AND FOR A
NINTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

62. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in all or in part by the applicable statutes of limitations.

AS AND FOR AN TENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

63. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in all or in part by the doctrines of waiver, laches and/or collateral estoppel.

AS AND FOR A
ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

64. The Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted to the extent it attempts to state a class action under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

65. The Court should not exercise supplemental jurisdiction on Plaintiffs who have not opted into the Federal FLSA action.

AS AND FOR A
THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

66. This action should not be certified as a class action pursuant to the FLSA since Plaintiffs will be unable to meet the criteria for numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy of representation and/or any other criteria sufficient to form a class or sub-class entitled to relief under state or federal law.

AS AND FOR A FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

67. Plaintiffs are not entitled to a jury trial as back pay is an equitable remedy.

AS AND FOR A
FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

68. This action should not be certified as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA since Plaintiffs will be unable to meet the criteria for numerosity, commonality, typicality, adequacy of representation and/or any other criteria sufficient to form a collective or sub-collective entitled to relief under state or federal law.

AS AND FOR A
SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

69. Plaintiffs were properly paid for all work time but should it be determined that some hours of work were not properly paid, which is specifically denied, then such amount was negligible and, hence, was de minimus; the Court should not give cognizance to the amount and should deny any recovery for such claim.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

70. The Defendants allege that should they have failed to pay any overtime to Plaintiffs, which is specifically denied, any omission was committed in good faith and upon reasonable grounds for believing that such act or omission was not in violation of the law. Defendants accordingly request this Court, in the exercise of its discretion, not to make an award of liquidated damages to Plaintiffs should any omission have occurred.

AS AND FOR A
EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

71. The Court should decline to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims since the state law claims predominate over the federal claim.

AS AND FOR A NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

72. The Court should decline to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims because the conflict between Article 23's opt-out mechanism and Section 216(b)'s opt-in mechanism is an exceptional circumstance which compels the Court to decline jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

73. The Court should decline to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims because of the inherent incompatibility of opt-in collective actions and opt-out class actions.

AS AND FOR A
TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

74. The Court should not allow Plaintiffs to pursue their hybrid class/collective action because the action violates the Rules Enabling Act which authorizes the United States Supreme Court to promulgate rules of procedure which cannot "abridge, enlarge or modify" a substantive right.

75. Since the FLSA, including its opt-in procedure, contains substantive rights, maintenance of a hybrid action abridges or modifies the substantive rights contained in the FLSA that the state law claims should be dismissed.

AS AND FOR A
TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE
DEFENSE

76. Plaintiff Tejada cannot act as a class plaintiff because he has not filed the legally required consent under Section 216(b).

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray this Court as follows:

1. Plaintiffs have and recover nothing from Defendants;
2. That the costs of this action including any reasonable attorneys' fees be taxed against the Plaintiffs; and
3. That the Court grants such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.
