PROPOSED JOINT PRETRIAL CONSENT ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 4 of the Court’s Individual Rules of Practice, Irving H. Picard (the “Trustee”), as trustee for the liquidation of the business of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”), under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa, et seq. (“SIPA”) and Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), by and through his counsel Baker & Hostetler LLP, and Defendants Saul B. Katz et al., by and through their counsel Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, hereby submit their Proposed Joint Pretrial Consent Order as follows:

A. A Statement of the Facts and other Matters on which the Parties Agree

The parties’ joint statement of facts and other matters on which the parties agree is attached as Exhibit 1.

B. A Particularized Description of Each Party’s Remaining Claims

The Trustee’s remaining claims are as follows:

Count One: In Count One of his Second Amended Complaint, the Trustee seeks to avoid and recover intentional fraudulent transfers (the "Transfers") made by BLMIS to the following Defendants pursuant to sections 548(a)(1)(A), 550(a) and 551 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the "Bankruptcy Code") and section 78fff-(2)(c)(3) of SIPA:

Iris J. Katz and Saul B. Katz Family Foundation, Inc.	Saul B. Katz	Valerie Wilpon
Iris Katz	Saul B. Katz Family Trust	Wilpon 2002 Descendants' Trust
Jacqueline G. Tepper	SEE Holdco LLC

Specifically, the Trustee seeks to avoid and recover all transfers of customer property made by BLMIS to the foregoing Defendants with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud its creditors, including all transfers representing the return of "principal" totaling approximately $303,399,001 predicated on Defendants' willful blindness to fraudulent activity at BLMIS.¹

Defendants dispute the Trustee's claims.

Count Nine: In Count Nine of his Second Amended Complaint, the Trustee seeks the recovery of the Transfers subsequently transferred by Defendants to the following defendants totaling approximately $118,543,998 pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and section 78fff-2(c)(3) of SIPA:

Amy Beth Katz	Heather Katz Knopf	Red Valley Partners

Gregory Katz

Defendants dispute the Trustee's claims.

¹ By Order dated March 5, 2012, this Court granted the Trustee's Partial Motion for Summary Judgment on the basis set forth in the Order.

Count Eleven: In Count Eleven of his Second Amended Complaint, the Trustee seeks to equitably subordinate the SIPA claims filed by the following Defendants pursuant to section 510(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code:

Amy Beth Katz	Iris Katz	Saul B. Katz Family Trust
Arthur Friedman	Jacqueline G. Tepper	Scott Wilpon
Bon Mick Family Partners LP	Jeffrey Wilpon	SEE Holdco LLC
Bruce Wilpon	Jessica Wilpon	Sterling 10 LLC

Heather Katz Knopf	Robin Wilpon Wachtler	Wilpon 2002 Descendants' Trust
Howard Katz	Ruth Friedman
Iris J. Katz and Saul B. Katz Family Foundation, Inc.	Saul B. Katz

Specifically, the Trustee alleges that the foregoing Defendants have engaged in inequitable conduct that has resulted in injury to the customers and creditors of BLMIS' estate and has conferred an unfair advantage on these Defendants. Based on these Defendants' inequitable conduct, the customers of BLMIS have been misled as to the true financial condition of BLMIS, customers have been induced to invest without knowledge of the actual facts regarding BLMIS' financial condition, and/or customers and creditors are less likely to recover the full amounts due to them because of the conduct of the Defendants.

Defendants dispute the Trustee's claims.

C. Each Party's Specific Contentions as to the Facts that are in Dispute.

The Trustee's contentions are attached as Exhibit 2(A).

The Defendants' contentions are attached as Exhibit 2(B).

D. A Particularized Statement of the Damages Claimed, including amounts, for each Claim, Counterclaim, Cross-claim, or Third-party claim.

Fraudulent transfers in the amount of $303,399,001.

Subsequent transfers of the fraudulent transfers in the amount of $118,543,998.

Prejudgment interest from the initiation of the adversary proceeding as to any fraudulent transfer claims.

Defendants dispute these amounts.

E. A List of the Names of the Witnesses (both fact witnesses and expert witnesses) that Each Party Intends to Call, in the Likely Order of Appearance.

The Trustee's witness list is attached as Exhibit 3(A).

The Defendants' witness list is attached as Exhibit 3(B).

F. A List of All Exhibits to be Offered by Each Party, and Particularized Objections thereto Noted in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

The Trustee's witness list is attached as Exhibit 4(A).

The Defendants' witness list is attached as Exhibit 4(B).

G. A Final Estimate of the Length of Trial.

The Parties estimate that the trial will take approximately 10 business days.

Exhibit 1 to Pretrial Consent Order

Picard v. Saul B. Katz, et al., 11-CV-03605 (JSR)

Statement of Facts and Other Matters on which the Parties Agree¹

1. Sterling Equities is a general partnership founded in 1972 by brothers-in-law Fred Wilpon and Saul Katz.
2. The general partners of Sterling Equities include Defendants Saul Katz, Fred Wilpon, Michael Katz, Richard Wilpon, David Katz, Thomas Osterman, Jeffrey Wilpon, Arthur Friedman, Gregory Katz, Marvin B Tepper, and the Estate of Leonard B. Schreier ("Sterling Partners").
3. The Sterling Partners and various related entities own and operate a number of businesses and invest in asset classes that include real estate, professional baseball, sports media, and private equity. These businesses involve, among other things, the purchase, development, and management of commercial and residential real estate, both directly and through the Sterling American Property ("SAP") funds, ownership of the New York Mets baseball franchise, a majority ownership interest in SportsNet New York ("SNY"), private equity and venture capital investments, and an ownership interest in the fund of funds Sterling Stamos Partners ("Sterling Stamos").
4. The Sterling Partners acquired their first interest in the Mets in 1980. In or around August 2002, the Sterling Partners acquired full ownership of the Mets.
5. Saul Katz currently serves as President and Chief Operating Officer of Sterling Equities and as President of the New York Mets and the Brooklyn Cyclones. Saul Katz is a CPA. He has responsibility for asset-based investments, is involved in strategic planning, and sits on the Board of Directors of Sterling Stamos.
6. Fred Wilpon currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Sterling Equities and as Chief Executive Officer of the New York Mets and Chairman of the Brooklyn Cyclones.
7. Fred Wilpon is the brother of Richard Wilpon and the father of Jeffrey Wilpon.
8. Richard Wilpon joined Sterling Equities in or around 1972, became a partner shortly thereafter, and currently serves as a Senior Executive Vice President. He is primarily involved in various real estate investments and is currently the Co-Chief Executive Officer of SAP, where he manages its investments and oversees its real estate acquisitions and dispositions. He is also a Board member of the New York Mets.
9. Jeffrey Wilpon joined Sterling Equities in or around 1986 and became a partner thereafter. He currently serves as a Senior Executive Vice President and as Chief Operating Officer, Senior Executive Vice President, and Board member of the New York

¹ The Parties' agreement to the factual assertions set forth herein should not be construed as an agreement by the Parties that all such facts are relevant or material.

Mets. He is the Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Brooklyn Cyclones and is primarily responsible for overseeing the day-to-day baseball and business operations of the New York Mets.

10. Michael Katz is the brother of Saul Katz and the father of Gregory Katz.
11. Michael Katz joined Sterling Equities in or around 1973 and became a partner shortly thereafter. He is a CPA. He currently serves as a Senior Executive Vice President and, up until 2001, was Chief Financial Officer. He is primarily involved in various real estate investments and is currently the Co-Chief Executive Officer of SAP where he is responsible for the day-to-day management of its real estate investments. He is also a Board member of the New York Mets.
12. Gregory Katz joined Sterling Equities in 2001 and became a partner thereafter. He currently serves as a Vice President and focuses on real estate investments where he acquires multi-family, commercial and retail real estate properties and arranges financing for SAP.
13. David Katz is the son of Saul Katz.
14. David Katz joined Sterling Equities in 1987 and became a partner thereafter. He currently serves as an Executive Vice President and is a Board member of the New York Mets. He holds responsibilities with respect to various real estate and private equity investments, and previously served as a board member of Sterling Stamos.
15. Arthur Friedman is a CPA and holds a law degree. He joined Sterling Equities in or around 1986 and became a partner shortly thereafter. He currently serves as a Senior Vice President and is a Board member of the Mets.
16. Thomas Osterman joined Sterling Equities in or around 1975 and became a partner thereafter. He currently serves as an Executive Vice President and is responsible for overseeing the development of commercial and residential properties in Manhattan, as well as for the strategic management of SAP's real estate assets. He is also a Board member of the New York Mets.
17. Marvin Tepper joined Sterling Equities in or around 1990 as general counsel and partner after having served as outside counsel. He retired in or around 2005. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Mets. He holds a law degree and has over 30 years of private practice experience.
18. Leonard Schreier was a Sterling Partner until his death in 2001. After his death, his partnership interests in Sterling Equities and related entities and investments were held and maintained by the Estate of Leonard Schreier, of which Fred Wilpon and Jason Bacher are co-executors.
19. Leonard Schreier died on October 28, 2001. Leonard Schreier's surviving children, Deyva Schreier Arthur and Michael Andrew Schreier, were the sole beneficiaries of his estate.

20. Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”) was founded in 1959 by Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”). Since approximately 1987, BLMIS operated from its principal place of business at 885 Third Avenue, New York, New York. This building is commonly known as “The Lipstick Building.”
21. As of January 19, 1960, Madoff registered BLMIS with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as a securities broker-dealer under Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, SIPA § 78o(b).
22. BLMIS remained a registered broker-dealer as of December 11, 2008.
23. By virtue of that registration, BLMIS was a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”).
24. In 1983, BLMIS registered Madoff Holdings Limited in London, which began operating as Madoff Securities International Limited (“MSIL”) in 1988.
25. BLMIS was engaged in three businesses: investment advisory, market making, and proprietary trading.
26. Madoff registered himself and BLMIS with the SEC as a Registered Investment Advisor in August 2006.
27. Madoff served as vice-chairman of the National Association of Securities Dealers (“NASD”) and as a member of its board of governors.
28. On December 11, 2008, Madoff was arrested and charged with securities fraud, investment advisor fraud, mail fraud, wire fraud, international money laundering to promote fraud in the sales of securities, international money laundering to conceal the proceedings of fraud in the sale of securities, money laundering, making false statements, perjury, making a false filing with the SEC, and theft from an employee benefit plan.
29. Madoff engaged in a fraudulent scheme in which he purported to execute, but did not actually execute, securities transactions on behalf of BLMIS customers.
30. Madoff pleaded guilty to the eleven-count information, which alleged—and he admitted—that he operated a fraudulent scheme through the IA Business of BLMIS.
31. Madoff admitted that BLMIS did not engage in the split-strike conversion securities trades reported on customer statements between the early 1990s and 2008.
32. Instead, Madoff deposited funds provided to BLMIS by its customers for investment purposes into a bank account numbered xxx-xxx703 at Chase Manhattan Bank.
33. Madoff perpetuated his fraud by creating fictitious documents, including, but not limited to, false BLMIS customer statements that reflected transactions that were never executed.

34. At least five individuals have pleaded guilty to criminal charges in connection with the fraud perpetrated by Madoff through BLMIS.
35. BLMIS used Friehling & Horowitz as its accountant.
36. David Friehling of Friehling & Horowitz pleaded guilty to several federal fraud charges for his involvement with Madoff's fraud.
37. On December 11, 2008, the SEC filed a complaint in the District Court that commenced proceedings against Madoff and BLMIS.
38. On December 15, 2008, the SEC consented to a combination of its own action with an application of SIPC. Thereafter, SIPC filed an application in the civil action seeking a decree that the customers of BLMIS are in need of the protections afforded by the Securities Investors Protection Act ("SIPA"). The District Court granted SIPC's application and issued a protective order appointing Irving H. Picard, Esq., as Trustee for the liquidation of the business of BLMIS.
39. Fred Wilpon met Madoff through their children, who attended school together on Long Island.
40. From the time he joined Sterling Equities through December 11, 2008, Arthur Friedman provided administrative assistance to account holders with respect to the majority of 1KW BLMIS accounts. Among other things, he communicated deposit and withdrawal requests from 1KW BLMIS customers to BLMIS, often by letter, maintained paperwork, including regularly issued monthly account statements, and monitored account balances.
41. Arthur Friedman generally was responsible for reporting on BLMIS' performance at bi-weekly meetings of the Sterling Partners.
42. For purposes of Defendants' respective BLMIS accounts at issue in this litigation, each typically received BLMIS correspondence care of Sterling Equities, 111 Great Neck Road, Suite 408, Great Neck, New York 11021.
43. Defendants regularly received monthly statements, trade confirmations, and quarterly reports from BLMIS.
44. BLMIS account statements purported to reflect transactions and investment returns in each Defendant's account.
45. BLMIS provided tax-related information for the 1KW BLMIS accounts.
46. The following entity Defendants in the New York Mets ownership chain were BLMIS customers: Sterling Mets LP, Mets Limited Partnership, and Mets II LLC.
47. Revenues generated by Mets operations typically were deposited into Mets-related BLMIS accounts when they were earned, often before the start of the baseball season, and then were withdrawn during the course of the baseball season as needed to meet expenses.

Exhibit 2A

Exhibit 2(A) to Pretrial Consent Order

Picard v. Saul B. Katz, et al., 11-CV-03605 (JSR)

Pursuant to paragraph 4(c) of this Court's Individual Rules, the Trustee hereby sets forth the specific contentions as to the facts that are disputed:

1. The Defendants are sophisticated investors.
2. The Defendants have an expertise in the financial industry and are general partners in a hedge fund of funds with an expertise in due diligence.
3. The Defendants treated their BLMIS investments as a "sure thing."
4. The Defendants were aware of facts suggesting a high probability of fraud at BLMIS.
5. The Defendants consciously avoided confirming any facts suggesting a high probability of fraud at BLMIS.
6. The Defendants did not engage in any diligence of their BLMIS investments in response to any "red flags" suggesting a high probability of fraud at BLMIS.
7. The Defendants had a financial motivation to ignore any "red flags" suggesting a high probability of fraud at BLMIS.
8. The Sterling Equities Partner Defendants operate the Sterling businesses as one.
9. The Sterling Equities Partner Defendants treated their BLMIS investments collectively and as part of their business.
10. The willful blindness to BLMIS' fraud of any one Sterling Equities Partner Defendant is imputed to all the Sterling Equities Partner Defendants.
11. The willful blindness to BLMIS' fraud of any Sterling Equities Partner Defendant is imputed to any Sterling Entity Defendant in which a Sterling Equities Partner Defendant with the requisite lack of good faith is an officer, manager, member, agent, and/or equitable owner.

12. The willful blindness to BLMIS' fraud of any Sterling Equities Partner Defendant is imputed to any Sterling Non-Partner Family Defendant for which any Sterling Equities Partner Defendant with the requisite lack of good faith served as an agent with respect to their BLMIS investments and/or equitable owner.

Exhibit 2B

PRETRIAL CONSENT ORDER IN PICARD V. KATZ, ET AL., 11-CV-03605 (JSR)
Defendants' Specific Contentions As to the Facts that Are Disputed
Individual Court Rule 4(c)

1. During the two year period at issue before the collapse of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("Madoff Securities"), no Defendant was willfully blind when making deposits into his, her, or its Madoff Securities accounts.

No Defendant subjectively believed there was a high probability that Bernard L. Madoff ("Madoff") was not trading securities and was running a Ponzi scheme.

No Defendant took deliberate action to avoid learning through easily accessible information or otherwise that Madoff was not trading securities and was running a Ponzi scheme.

2. The knowledge, beliefs, and conduct of any one Defendant cannot be imputed to any other Defendant with respect to investments in Madoff Securities accounts.

Each Defendant was responsible for the amount and timing of his, her, or its own investment in his, her, or its securities account maintained at Madoff Securities.

No Defendant authorized any other Defendant to act as agent to decide the amount or timing of investments in his, her, or its securities account maintained at Madoff Securities.

Neither the partners of Sterling Equities as a group, nor Saul Katz or Arthur Friedman individually, controlled or made investment decisions with respect to Madoff Securities accounts owned by other Defendants.

Every entity, trust, foundation, or other similar Defendant had a separate legal existence and/or corporate form that at all times was respected.

3. No Defendant alleged to have received a subsequent transfer did so with knowledge that the relevant initial transfer was avoidable.

4. No alleged subsequent transfer can be traced from an avoidable initial transfer from Madoff Securities to any Defendant.
