Great news. Thanks, John and Tim. In case you've been following the latest news out of Wall Street, I wanted to share with you a recent press release. Madoff Securities was just charged with fraud, perhaps the biggest in Wall Street history. Fortunately my brother Peter called it over 7 years ago. The man is good at what he does.

Peace,

Basil

Press Release

Sterling Stamos Funds Not Invested in Madoff Securities

MENLO PARK, CA, Dec 12, 2008 -- As reported in the press, US authorities have brought civil and criminal charges against Bernard L. Madoff, the founder of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities.

Sterling Stamos Capital Management, L.P. ("SSCM") and the funds it manages do not have investments in any of the funds managed by Madoff Securities.

It has also been reported that Sterling Equities, one of Sterling Stamos Capital Management, L.P.'s investors, has, among its investments, accounts managed by Madoff Securities. Sterling Equities is an independent entity and has no operational or investment decision-making authority within SSCM.

Dear Basil,

As I have written , we have the truck in Phnom Penh, I am checking this week on whose name it is registered in so we can put Ins on it--Tim has found a great place in Sien Riep for the refinery--we will move all assetts belonging to AHC to that site in early Jan.The generator is too large for our use--we might want to donate to the new satelite hospita/clinic.

I will get a hold of Seitha (Sp ?) this week at AHC and get a fomal MoU finished so we can go to the CDC and get the refinery out of customs.

All is good

John

Hi John and Tim,

I just wanted to give you an idea of the assets which belong to AHC. See the attachment above. Add on an additional 10K for land clearing costs at Dom Dek and the total comes to $97,947. I'm hoping we can recover at least 57K from that total.

It's a painful loss of capital and a lesson well learned by yours truly, but I believe that our new enterprise will more than make up the loss over a short period of time.

Many thanks

Basil
