Resend of yesterday's cash flow

Mark,

I've updated the cash flow – we got a bit of relief in that Glavine's buyout check cleared so I can relieve some of the cash I had set aside for his payment. We just about squeak by – (it's really close), but maybe with a little luck, and a few cash receipts from advertising and tickets, and no disbursement surprises, and with scrapping the Madoff balances, we'll get you the $10MM. But it is really going to be tight (enough disclaimers??).

We can discuss when you have time.
