- 1 Are you sure that you could recommend to the iPod inventor
- 2 that he could go ahead and have an iPod, or, for that
- 3 matter, Gutenberg, the press? I mean, you see the
- 4 problem.
- 5 MR. VERRILLI: Yes, I think my answer to --
- JUSTICE BREYER: What's the answer?
- 7 MR. VERRILLI: -- those questions are: yes, yes,
- 8 yes, and yes.
- 9 [Laughter.]
- 10 JUSTICE BREYER: Because in each case -- for all
- 11 I know, the monks had a fit when Gutenberg made his press
- 12 --
- [Laughter.]
- JUSTICE BREYER: -- but the problem, of course,
- 15 is that it could well be, in each of those instances, that
- 16 there will be vast numbers of infringing uses that are
- 17 foreseeable.
- MR. VERRILLI: I disagree with that, Your Honor.
- 19 Certainly not -- I don't think there's any empirical
- 20 evidence to suggest, with respect to any of the things
- 21 that Your Honor just identified -- and let me pick out the
- 22 iPod as one, because it's the most current example, I
- 23 guess. From the moment that device was introduced, it was
- 24 obvious that there were very significant lawful commercial
- 25 uses for it. And let me clarify something I think is

- 1 unclear from the amicus briefs. The record companies, my
- 2 clients, have said, for some time now, and it's been on
- 3 their Website for some time now, that it's perfectly
- 4 lawful to take a CD that you've purchased, upload it onto
- 5 your computer, put it onto your iPod. There is a very,
- 6 very significant lawful commercial use for that device,
- 7 going forward.
- 8 And, remember, I -- what our test -- our test is
- 9 not "substantial." Our test is that it's a -- it's a --
- 10 when it's a vast-majority use, like here, it's a clear
- 11 case of contribution --
- JUSTICE SCALIA: How do you -- how do you know,
- 13 going in, Mr. Verrilli? I mean, I'm about to start the
- 14 business. How much time do you give me to bring up the
- 15 lawful use to the level where it will outweigh the
- 16 unlawful use? I have to know, going in.
- 17 MR. VERRILLI: Well, I --
- JUSTICE SCALIA: And it's one thing to sit back
- 19 and, you know, calculate with this ongoing business, it's
- 20 90 percent/10 percent. But I'm a new inventor, and I'm --
- 21 vou know --
- MR. VERRILLI: I think the weight --
- JUSTICE SCALIA: -- I'm going to get sued right
- 24 away. I know I'm going to get sued right away, before I
- 25 have a chance to build up a business.
