Welcome to ReDigi!

Hi, test101

Thank you for joining ReDigi, the online marketplace for used digital music.

As a member of the ReDigi community, you'll have full access to your FREE cloud and Media Manager where you can store your music, sell music you no longer want and buy songs for dirt-cheap!

To get started, please visit www.redigi.com.

Once you log in, explore the site and take advantage of all we have to offer:

- Store music for FREE in your cloud and access it anytime, anywhere. Each user gets their own private cloud.
- Cash In on the music you no longer listen to. With the click of a button you can sell music straight from your cloud or personal music library.
- Buy music directly from other users so you can revamp your collection while saving loads of money.
- Discover new music through ReDigi's charts.
- Exercise your rights as a consumer in the digital age! Sell your old

MP3s when you're through listening to them, just as you would an old CD.
Welcome to the Digital Revolution!

The ReDigi Team

"People want to own their music. You don't want to rent your music - and then, one day, if you stop paying, all your music goes away."

~ Steve Jobs
