Re: United States v. Apple, Inc., et al., No. 12-cv-2826 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

The United States is submitting with its letter documents designated by Apple Inc. as "Confidential" pursuant to the Stipulated Protective Order dated May 9, 2012. The United States conferred with Apple regarding removing the confidentiality designations on all the exhibits based on the content and age of the documents. After conferring, there remain two documents on which Apple has requested limited redactions—Exhibits B and F. Exhibit B has information that Apple has requested be redacted because of its sensitive business nature and potential to negatively impact a current business partner. Exhibit F is the same document as Attachment B to Mr. Berman's February 13 letter to the Court. On February 19, Apple requested redactions of certain portions of that document in order to protect: (a) personal information of Mr. Murdoch; and (b) business information that Apple deemed Confidential. The United States understands that Apple's proposed redactions were accepted by the Court, and the highlighted version of Exhibit F has proposed redactions identical to those proposed by Apple on February 19. Pursuant to Rule 4.A of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, attached please find the partial loose pages from Exhibits B and F, from which the United States seeks to have material redacted.

All are approved, with one exception & the material on ... 5408 shall not be redacted.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Lawrence E. Buterman
