Re: City of Providence, et al. v. BATS Global Markets, Inc., et al., No. 14-cv-2811:

Withdrawal of Defendants' Motion to Compel Deposition Testimony

Dear Judge Furman:

We reference our letter to the court dated February 8, 2021 [ECF 514] seeking to compel the plaintiffs to provide dates before March 12 for the court-ordered [ECF 508] depositions of their lawyers.

As noted in our letter to the court dated February 9, 2021 [ECF 15], we received confirmation from Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP, which represents plaintiffs Plumbers and Pipefitters National Pension Fund and the City of Providence, that they would produce a witness for deposition on March 4.

Through further email correspondence with Plaintiffs' counsel (See Exhibit A, email chain between Corban Rhodes and Steven Shepard), we have been advised that the witness identified by Robbins Gellar Rudman & Dowd on February 9 will also testify on behalf of Labaton Sucharow, LLP, which represents plaintiff State-Boston Retirement System, and Motley Rice, LLC, which represents plaintiff Employees' Retirement System of the Government of the Virgin Islands. Plaintiffs' counsel have also advised that they will produce one or more witnesses on March 5, 2021 to testify on behalf of all three firms.

Because Plaintiffs have represented that they will produce witnesses for deposition in accordance with the Court's order, we respectfully withdraw our motion to compel deposition testimony.

Respectfully submitted,
