ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Atz v. General Motors LLC, 15-CV-5222
-----X

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

On April 6, 2020, the Court granted the motion by Bailey Cowan Heckaman PLLC and Pulaski Law Firm (the “Firms”) to withdraw from representing plaintiff Sederick Green and severed his claims from the complaints filed by the Firms. See 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 7386 (the “April 6 Order”). The Order provided Mr. Green ninety (90) days — that is, until July 6, 2020 — to file a new lawsuit in this Court and to pay any filing fee associated with filing a complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). April 6 Order, ¶ 3. Mr. Green was also directed to file a Related Case Statement identifying the lawsuit as relating to these proceedings. Id. On July 9, 2020, pursuant to Paragraph 4 of the April 6 Order, New GM filed a First Notice of Non-Compliance requesting dismissal without prejudice of the claims asserted by Mr. Green for failure to comply with the April 6 Order. See 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8033.

On July 10, 2020, the Court granted the motion to dismiss Mr. Green’s claims without prejudice. 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8036. The Court advised that New GM could move to dismiss Mr. Green’s claims with prejudice unless he filed an amended and severed complaint and Related Case Statement and paid the requisite filing fee within thirty days of the dismissal without prejudice — that is, by no later than August 9, 2020. Id. To date, Mr. Green has not filed an amended and severed complaint as required. Accordingly, on August 14, 2020, New GM filed a Second Notice of Non-Compliance and requested dismissal of Mr. Green’s claims with prejudice. See 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8099.

The Supreme Court and the Second Circuit have long recognized that federal courts are vested with the authority to dismiss a plaintiff's action with prejudice because of a failure to prosecute, a power that is "necessary in order to prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases and to avoid congestion in the calendars of the District Courts." Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 629-30 (1962); see, e.g., United States ex rel. Drake v. Norden Sys., Inc., 375 F.3d 248, 250 (2d Cir. 2004); see also, e.g., In re World Trade Ctr. Disaster Site Litig., 722 F.3d 483, 487 (2d Cir. 2013) (per curiam) (noting that district courts' "responsibility to manage their dockets so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases . . . is particularly acute where the litigation is complex and continuing" (internal quotation marks omitted)). Because dismissal is "one of the harshest sanctions at a trial court's disposal," however, it must be "reserved for use only in the most extreme circumstances." Drake, 375 F.3d at 251. In considering a Rule 41(b) dismissal, a court must weigh five factors: "(1) the duration of the plaintiff's failure to comply with the court order, (2) whether plaintiff was on notice that failure to comply would result in dismissal, (3) whether the defendants are likely to be prejudiced by further delay in the proceedings, (4) a balancing of the court's interest in managing its docket with the plaintiff's interest in receiving a fair chance to be heard, and (5) whether the judge has adequately considered a sanction less drastic than dismissal." Lucas v. Miles, 84 F.3d 532, 535 (2d Cir. 1996).

Upon due consideration of the foregoing factors, the Court finds that dismissal with prejudice is the appropriate sanction for Mr. Green's failure to file an amended and severed complaint and pay the filing fee, as required by the April 6 Order. See April 6 Order, ¶ 3. Mr. Green has been on continual notice of the consequences of failing to file an amended and severed complaint, and has been repeatedly reminded over the past several months — through the April 6 Order; New GM's First Notice of Non-Compliance, 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8033; the Court's dismissal without prejudice of Mr. Green's claims, 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8036; and New GM's current notice, 14-MD-2543, ECF No. 8099. Those efforts to inform Mr. Green of the consequences of his noncompliance with the April 6 Order have proved fruitless, leaving the Court with no “means to move this case forward efficiently without the cudgel of extreme sanctions,” Baptiste v. Sommers, 768 F.3d 212, 219 (2d Cir. 2014).

In light of the foregoing, Mr. Green’s claims are hereby DISMISSED with prejudice. See In re World Trade Ctr. Disaster Site Litig., 722 F.3d at 487 (holding that “the court did not exceed the bounds of its discretion in dismissing the noncompliant plaintiffs’ complaints”). The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Sederick Green as a party in 14-MD-2543 and 15-CV-5222, and, if there are no remaining plaintiffs in 15-CV-5222, to close that case.

In accordance with the April 6 Order, New GM shall serve a copy of this Order on Mr. Green and file proof of such service.

SO ORDERED.
