Order

ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court has been informed that Plaintiff called chambers again on an ex parte basis. Plaintiff is reminded that the parties may not call the Court ex parte (i.e., without also having defense counsel on the line). Following up on the Court’s previous order, the parties are reminded that if a document required to be produced in discovery was not in fact produced prior to deposition of a witness to whom it is relevant, the deponent may, upon application and order by the Court, be required to return for further questioning at the defending party’s expense.

SO ORDERED.
