No. 1:16-cv-08318 (ALC) (OTW)

~~PROPOSED~~ STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, the Parties having agreed to the following terms of confidentiality, and the Court having found that good cause exists for the issuance of an appropriately tailored confidentiality order pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, it is hereby ORDERED that the following restrictions and procedures shall apply to the information and documents exchanged by the parties in connection with the pre-trial phase of this action:

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1. Party: any party in the Action, including all of its officers, directors, principals, employees, Consultants, Experts and Outside Counsel, as defined below.

1.2. Non-Party: any entity that is not a named party to the Action.

1.3. Discovery Material: all documents, items or other information—regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored or maintained—including, among other things, testimony, interrogatory responses, transcripts, depositions and deposition exhibits, responses to requests to admit, recorded or graphic matter, electronically stored information (“ESI”), tangible things and/or other information produced, given, exchanged by or obtained from any Party or Non-

Party during discovery in this Action that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this Action (whether produced pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34, subpoena or otherwise). This includes any material produced, filed or served by any Party or person during discovery in this Action, or any information included in any such material.

Discovery Material produced, exchanged or disclosed in this Action shall be used only for the purposes of this Action, and not for any other proceeding or business, competitive, personal, private, public or other purpose.

1.4. CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items: Discovery Material that has not been made public by the Producing Party, or Designating Party if different from the Producing Party, and that the Producing Party, or Designating Party if different from the Producing Party, reasonably and in good faith believes qualifies for protection under standards developed under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), including: (a) nonpublic, confidential, proprietary or commercial information not readily ascertainable through lawful means by the public or the Receiving Party; (b) information that is commercially sensitive, including, without limitation, confidential research or business development information; or (c) information kept confidential pursuant to law or regulation.

1.5. HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items: Discovery Material that contains competitive or highly sensitive information and that the Designating Party reasonably and in good faith believes is “CONFIDENTIAL” as set forth under Paragraph 1.4 above, such as, inter alia: (a) trade secrets; (b) confidential research, development, testing and studies relating to drug products; (c) sensitive financial or strategic commercial information; (d) material or information in possession of a Party or person concerning which said Party or person has an independent obligation of confidentiality to a Non-Party or person; (e) information relating to past, current or future pharmaceutical products other than the generic pharmaceutical products at issue in this Action; (f) an individual's family, financial, medical, personnel records or other highly sensitive or personally identifying information; or (g) information protected by foreign, federal or state privacy laws. In addition, with regard to subparagraphs (a), (b), (c) and (e), the Designating Party must also reasonably and in good faith believe that disclosure of this information is likely to cause harm to its competitive position.

1.6. OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Information or Items: Discovery Material that contains highly competitive or highly sensitive information and which the Designating Party reasonably and in good faith believes is: (a) "CONFIDENTIAL" as set forth under Paragraph 1.4 above or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" as set forth under Paragraph 1.5 above; and either (b) contains information, the disclosure of which is likely to have a significant effect on current or future (i) business strategies or decisions, (ii) product plans or development or (iii) pricing; or (c) was previously produced in a related matter with an OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY designation.

The Parties intend that the OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY designation will be used only under these limited circumstances.

1.7. Receiving Party: a Party that receives Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

1.8. Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Discovery Material.

1.9. Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it or another Party or Non-Party produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY.

1.10. Protected Material: any Discovery Material that is designated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or as OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY.

1.11. Outside Counsel: attorneys, as well as their regular and temporary support staffs, including but not limited to attorneys, paralegals, secretaries, law clerks and investigators, who are not employees of a Party but who are retained to represent or advise a Party in this Action.

1.12. In House Counsel: attorneys and other personnel employed by or on behalf of a Party to perform legal functions, as well as their regular and temporary support staffs, including but not limited to attorneys, paralegals, secretaries, law clerks and investigators.

1.13. Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and In House Counsel.

1.14. Expert and/or Consultant: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to this Action, along with his or her employees and support personnel, who has been retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action, and who is not a current employee of a Party.

1.15. Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., copying, organizing, filing, coding, converting, storing, retrieving data in any form or media or designing programs for handling data connected with this Action, including the performance of such duties in relation to a computerized litigation support system, etc.) who have been retained by a Party or its Counsel to provide litigation support services in this Action, and who are not current employees of a Party, and their employees and subcontractors.

2. SCOPE OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

2.1. This Order shall apply to all Discovery Material.

2.2. Nothing herein shall impose any restriction on the use or disclosure by a party of its own documents or information.

2.3. The parties agree that this Stipulated Protective Order will constitute a Qualified Protective Order under 45 C.F.R. 164.512(e), whereby the order (a) prohibits the parties from using or disclosing protected health information for any purpose other than the litigation or proceeding for which such information was requested and (b) requires the return to the covered entity or destruction of protected health information (including all copies made) at the end of the litigation or proceeding.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS (THREE-TIER)

3.1. Each Party and any Non-Party shall have the right to designate any Discovery Material as confidential and subject to this Order, by marking such Material as “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” or “OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY” in accordance with Paragraph 4 of this Order. It shall be the duty of the Party or Non-Party who seeks to invoke protection under this Order to give notice, as set forth below, of the Discovery Material designated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY. The duty of the Parties and of all other persons bound by this Order to maintain the confidentiality of the Discovery Material so designated shall commence with such notice.

3.2. CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material, shall include: (a) all copies, extracts and complete or partial summaries prepared from such CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material; (b) portions of deposition transcripts and exhibits thereto that contain, summarize or reflect the content of any such CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material; (c) portions of briefs, memoranda or any other writings filed with the Court and exhibits thereto that contain, summarize or reflect the content of any such CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material; and (d) written discovery responses and answers that contain, summarize or reflect the content of any such CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material.

3.3. CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material shall not include: (a) information in the public domain at the time of disclosure, provided that if only part of the contents of particular CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material is in the public domain, the remaining contents shall remain subject to this Order; (b) information the Receiving Party can show was in its possession prior to the time of disclosure; (c) information that becomes a part of the public domain through no fault of a Receiving Party; or (d) information the Receiving Party receives from a Non-Party properly and rightfully in possession of said information, and not as a result of any breach of confidentiality, and properly and rightfully authorized to make disclosure without restriction as to disclosure. The Receiving Party shall have the burden of proving that the use or disclosure satisfies one or more of these criteria. Furthermore, Designating Parties will use reasonable care to avoid designating Discovery Materials that do not need to or cannot be designated as such.

3.4. The Receiving Party may challenge a designation of CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 7.

3.5. Notwithstanding anything else herein, Discovery Material previously produced in the multidistrict litigation in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania captioned In re Generic Pharmaceuticals Pricing Antitrust Litigation, No. 2:16-md-2724 (the “MDL”) that is subsequently produced in this Action shall be entitled to the same confidentiality designation (CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY) in this Action as applicable in the MDL.

4. DESIGNATING MATERIALS AS “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” AND/OR “OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY”

4.1. Designating Documentary Discovery Material. Any Party or any Non-Party may designate Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY under the procedures and standards set forth in this Order, and such Discovery Material shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

4.2. Manner and Timing of Designations. The designation of information as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY for purposes of this Order shall be made in the following manner:

a. For information in documentary or digital image format the Designating Party shall affix a legend to each page or digital image that contains Protected Material. The legend shall include “CONFIDENTIAL”, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” or “OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY” and shall be affixed in such a manner as not to obliterate or obscure any written part of the Discovery Material.

b. For Discovery Material produced in some form other than documentary or digital image, and for any other tangible items such as recordings, magnetic media, photographs and things, the Designating Party shall affix in a prominent place a legend substantially in the above form to the Discovery Material or a container for it, to a placeholder image, or in the electronic file name, in any suitable and readily viewable manner.

c. A Party or Non-Party that makes hard-copy documents or other Discovery Materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which documents or other Discovery Materials it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, and until and unless produced without any confidentiality designation, all Discovery Materials made available for inspection shall be deemed to be OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY. After the inspecting Party has identified the documents or other Discovery Material it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party shall affix the appropriate legend on each page or other container, as appropriate, that contains Protected Material.

d. For testimony given in a deposition, or other pretrial proceeding:

(i) Parties and deponents may, within 60 days after receiving a final transcript of a deposition, designate the transcript (and exhibits thereto) as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY to the extent the Party or deponent believes the transcript contains Protected Material.

(ii) Until the expiration of the 60-day period during which such designations may be made, the entire deposition will be treated as subject to protection as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order, except for parts of the deposition transcript that discuss Discovery Material that has been previously designated, or are designated on the record during the deposition, as OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY.

(iii) If any depositions are videotaped or digitally recorded, those portions of the videotape or recording corresponding to portions of the deposition transcript designated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY shall be afforded the same status.

4.3. Inadvertent Failures to Designate. The inadvertent failure to designate particular Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY at the time of production shall not operate to waive a Party's or person's right to later designate such Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY. Any correction and notice of the correction shall be made in writing, accompanied by substitute copies of each item of Discovery Material, properly marked CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY in accordance with Paragraph 4.2 of this Order. A Receiving Party may challenge the correction in accordance with Paragraph 7 of this Order, and until that challenge is resolved by the Parties or the Court, the disputed Discovery Material shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY in accordance with the corrected designation. If no challenge is made, then within 5 calendar days of receipt of substitute copies of the Discovery Material, the Receiving Party shall destroy or return to counsel for the Producing Party all copies of such misdesignated Discovery Material. No Party shall be deemed to have violated this Order if, prior to notification of any later designation, such Discovery Material has been disclosed or used in a manner inconsistent with the later designation. If the Discovery Material that was inadvertently not designated is, by the time of the later designation, filed with a court on the public record, the Party or Non-Party that failed to make the designation shall move for appropriate relief.

4.4. Increasing the Designation of Discovery Material Produced by Other Parties or Non-Parties. Subject to the standards of Paragraphs 1.5 and 1.6, a Party may increase the designation (i.e., change any Discovery Material produced without a designation to a designation of "CONFIDENTIAL", "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" or "OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY," designate any Discovery Material produced as "CONFIDENTIAL" to a designation of "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" or "OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY" or designate any Discovery Material produced as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" to a designation of "OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY”) of any Discovery Material produced by any other Party or Non-Party, provided that said Discovery Material contains the Designating Party’s own CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Information.

a. Increasing a designation shall be accomplished by providing written notice to all Parties, and the Producing Party if the Producing Party is a Non-Party, identifying (by Bates Number or other individually identifiable information) the Discovery Material whose designation is to be increased. Promptly after providing such notice, the Designating Party shall provide relabeled copies of the Discovery Material to each Receiving Party reflecting the change in designation. The Receiving Party will replace the incorrectly designated material with the newly designated materials and will destroy the incorrectly designated materials. Any Party may object to the increased designation of Discovery Material pursuant to the procedures set forth in Paragraph 7 regarding challenging designations. If a challenge is made, the Designating Party shall bear the burden of establishing the basis for the increased designation, and until the challenge is resolved by the Parties or the Court, the disputed Discovery Material shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and/or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY in accordance with the corrected designation.

b. No Party shall be held in breach of this Order if, prior to notification of such later re-designation, the Protected Material was disclosed or used in a manner inconsistent with such later re-designation.

5. DISCLOSURE AND USE OF DISCOVERY MATERIAL

5.1. Absent an agreement of the Producing Party or an Order to the contrary by this Court or other court of competent jurisdiction, and except as provided in Paragraph 5.5 below, each Party and all other persons bound by the terms of this Order shall use any Discovery

Material produced or otherwise provided by a Party or Non-Party other than itself solely for purposes of litigating or attempting to settle any part of this Action. In no event shall such Discovery Material be used for any other purpose, including without limitation any business, competitive, personal, private, public or any other purpose, or for any other proceeding. The attorneys of record for the Parties shall exercise reasonable care to ensure that the information and documents governed by this Order are (a) used only for the purpose specified herein and (b) disclosed only to authorized persons.

5.2. Discovery Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order. For purposes of this Order, a secure website, or other internet-based document depository with adequate security and access limited to persons authorized under this Order, shall be deemed a secure location.

5.3. CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material may be disclosed, summarized, described, revealed or otherwise made available in whole or in part only in accordance with the terms of this Order and only to the following persons:

- a. any officer, director or employee of a Party who is required in good faith to provide material assistance in the conduct of this Action;
- b. Parties' In House Counsel;
- c. Outside Counsel for the Parties;
- d. this Court, or any other court exercising jurisdiction with respect to this Action, any appellate court(s), court personnel and qualified persons (including necessary clerical personnel) recording, taking or transcribing testimony or argument at any deposition, hearing, trial or appeal in this Action;

- e. any person designated by the Court upon such terms as the Court may deem proper;
- f. any special master, mediator or arbitrator engaged by the Parties or authorized by the Court for purposes of mediation, arbitration or other dispute resolution regarding issues arising in this Action;
- g. Experts and Consultants retained by the Parties to provide services in this Action;
- h. Professional Vendors retained by the Parties to provide services in this Action;
- i. a fact witness, at the witness's deposition in this Action, but only if Counsel who discloses Protected Material to the witness determines, in good faith, that such disclosure is reasonably necessary and appropriate to assist in the conduct of this Action, and subject to the terms set forth in this Order regarding the use of Protected Material in depositions;
- j. the author, addressees, recipients, or custodian of the document, or any current employee or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(6) witness of the Producing or Designating Party;
- k. (i) the person, or a current officer, director or employee of an entity, that produced or originally created the Protected Material; (ii) any person who was an officer or employee of the Producing Party at the time the Protected Material was originally created, provided that the disclosing party has a good faith belief that the matters memorialized in the Protected Material were within the scope of employment of, or otherwise were known to, such person; (iii) any person who was an author, addressee or recipient of the Protected Material sought to be disclosed to that person; or (iv) any person expressly mentioned, discussed or referred to by actual name or title in the Protected Material as indicated on its face, provided that the disclosing party has a good faith belief that the matters memorialized in the Protected Material were within the scope of employment of, or otherwise were known to, such person;

l. others as to whom the Designating Party has agreed (or in the case of CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material for which there are multiple Designating Parties, all Designating Parties have agreed) in writing or on the record;

m. any Defendant that is a natural person; and

n. any Trustee of a Party owing duties to that Party and any legal representative of a Party with specific responsibilities for this Action (provided that such Party has identified any such person in writing to counsel for the Producing Party or the Designating Party sufficiently in advance of any disclosure to such person to enable the Producing Party or the Designating Party to raise concerns about any such disclosure with the Receiving Party and, if necessary, the Court).

5.4. HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material may be disclosed only to those persons described in Paragraphs 5.3 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (k), (l), (m) and (n). HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material also may be disclosed to those persons described in Paragraph 5.3(b), provided that they are actively assisting in the Action, and agree not to disclose at any time the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material or information contained therein to any officer, director, employee or person affiliated with a Party, unless that person is otherwise permitted to possess such HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material under the terms of this Order.

5.5. OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material may be disclosed only to those persons described in Paragraphs 5.3 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (k), (l), (m) and (n).

Unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties or permitted under the terms of this Order, OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material also may be disclosed to those persons described in Paragraph 5.3(b) only where (a) the Designating Party has agreed in writing or on the record to the disclosure to those persons; (b) the Receiving Party believes in good faith that there is a compelling need for those persons to review the particular OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material; and (c) those persons are actively assisting in the Action, and agree not to disclose at any time the OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material or information contained therein to any officer, director, employee or person affiliated with a Party, unless that person is otherwise permitted to possess such OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material under the terms of this Order. If the Designating Party does not agree in writing or on the record to the disclosure, Counsel for the Receiving Party may apply for authorization under Paragraph 14.3 of the Protective Order, and on any such application, the Designating Party shall have the burden of showing that: (i) the Discovery Material satisfies the criteria for designation as OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY; and (ii) consent to the disclosure sought was appropriately withheld.

5.6. OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material may be disclosed under Paragraph 5.5 to a natural person only if the person at the time of the disclosure is not employed by, or an agent of or otherwise affiliated with, a competitor, supplier or customer of the Producing or Designating Party, unless such person is authorized to receive the OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material under Paragraph 5.3(j), (k)(iv), (m), or (n).

5.7. This Order shall not restrict any attorney who is a qualified recipient under the terms of Paragraphs 5.3(b) or 5.3(c), 5.4 and 5.5 from rendering advice to his or her client that is a Party with respect to this Action, and in the course thereof, from generally relying upon his or her examination of Protected Material. In rendering such advice or in otherwise communicating with the client, the attorney shall not disclose directly or indirectly the specific content of any Protected Material of another Party or Non-Party where such disclosure would not otherwise be permitted under the terms of this Order.

5.8. This Order shall not apply to and, thus, does not restrict any Party's use, for any purpose, of: (a) its own Protected Material or (b) any documents, things, information or other material that: (i) at the time of disclosure in this Action is publicly known through no unauthorized act of such Party; (ii) was lawfully developed or obtained independent of discovery in this Action or (iii) was obtained or purchased by such Party from a Non-Party under a confidentiality or other non-disclosure agreement and in a manner that did not breach any pre-existing confidentiality obligation. The Party shall have the burden of proving that the use or disclosure satisfies one or more of these criteria. Any Party with material covered by provisions 5.8(b)(ii) or (iii) may, at its election, designate all or any part of the material that otherwise meets the provisions of Paragraph 1.4, 1.5 or 1.6 as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY for all purposes under this Order, and if so designated, the material shall be deemed Protected Material under this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Paragraph shall be construed to permit a Receiving Party to disclose Discovery Material that has been designated by another Party as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY except in accordance with Paragraphs 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5 of this Order.

5.9. Notwithstanding any other part of this Order, no Party shall disclose any Discovery Material to any participant in a mock jury proceeding without agreement of the Parties or further Order of the Court.

6. PROCEDURES FOR DISCLOSURE OF “CONFIDENTIAL,” “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” AND “OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY” INFORMATION

6.1. Every person to whom Protected Material or information contained therein is to be disclosed, summarized, described, characterized, or otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part first shall be advised that the Protected Material or information is being disclosed pursuant and subject to the terms of this Order.

6.2. Before disclosure of any Protected Material is made under Paragraphs 5.3, 5.4 or 5.5, the person to whom disclosure is to be made shall execute a copy of the Acknowledgment and Agreement to be Bound by Stipulated Protective Order (“Agreement”) attached hereto as Exhibit A; provided that: (a) persons listed in Paragraphs 5.3(c), (d) and (e) shall not be required to execute Exhibit A and (b) a witness at a deposition may state on the record under oath that he or she agrees to be bound by this Order to the same extent as provided for in Exhibit A.

6.3. If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person not authorized under this Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies or obtain a certification of destruction of the Protected Material, (b) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, (c) request such person or persons to execute the Agreement attached as Exhibit A and (d) inform each Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosure.

7. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

7.1. Application to strike designation: Any Party challenging another Party’s or person’s designation of Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY (the “Challenging Party”) may make, in the manner prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules, a motion or other appropriate application to the Court to strike the designation at any time up to the commencement of trial. The Challenging Party shall provide written notice to the Designating Party, identifying the CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material whose designation it challenges and setting forth the basis for the challenge. Within 21 business days of its receipt of written notice of the challenge to its designation, the Designating Party shall meet and confer with the Challenging Party and these parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve any dispute concerning the designation by agreement or stipulation. Failing such agreement or stipulation, the Challenging Party's motion or application regarding the challenged material shall be filed under seal and shall identify with specificity the CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material that is the subject of the motion. If such a motion or application is made, the Designating Party may respond, and all Discovery Material so designated shall maintain its as-designated CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY status pending a determination by the Court as to its appropriate status. The Designating Party bears the burden to justify the designation challenged.

7.2. Nothing in this Paragraph 7 shall limit the right of any Party to petition the Court for an in camera review of any Discovery Material.

8. EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

8.1. The use of Protected Material at any deposition is subject to the limitations on disclosure provided in Paragraphs 5.3, 5.4 and 5.5.

8.2. If a deposition witness is examined concerning Protected Material, the Designating Party shall have the right to exclude from the portion of the examination concerning such information any person not authorized in accordance with Paragraphs 5.3, 5.4 and 5.5 above to have access to such material.

9. FILING CONFIDENTIAL DISCOVERY MATERIAL

9.1. If a Party desires to file anything with the Court that previously has been designated as CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY, the Parties shall follow the Court's procedures with respect to filing under seal. Regardless of any provision in this Order to the contrary, a Party is not required to file a document under seal if the Protected Material contained or reflected in the document was so designated solely by that Party.

10. PROTECTED MATERIAL OFFERED AT TRIAL

10.1. The use of Protected Material for the purpose of any hearing or proceeding that is open to the public, or at trial, will be the subject of future agreement or order as the need may arise.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED MATERIAL

11.1. If, in connection with this Action, information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, the common interest privilege, work product protection or other legally cognizable privilege or immunity is inadvertently disclosed ("Disclosed Privileged Information"), the disclosure of the Disclosed Privileged Information shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of any claim of privilege or other protection that a Party would otherwise be entitled to assert with respect to the Disclosed Privileged Information and its subject matter. The Parties intend that this provision shall displace the provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b), and that this provision shall constitute an Order under Fed R. Evid. 502(d).

11.2. If a Producing Party becomes aware that it has inadvertently produced Disclosed Privileged Information, the Producing Party will promptly notify each Receiving Party in writing of the inadvertent production. Within ten (10) business days of receipt of such notice, each Party to which such notice is directed: (a) must return, sequester or destroy the Disclosed Privileged

Information and any copies; (b) must not use or disclose the Disclosed Privileged Information until the claim is resolved; (c) must take reasonable steps to recall the Disclosed Privileged Information if the Party disclosed it before being notified; and (d) must provide a written certification of counsel that all such Disclosed Privileged Information has been returned, sequestered or destroyed. Any notes or summaries referring or relating to any such Disclosed Privileged Information shall be destroyed or sequestered within the ten (10) business day period provided for.

11.3. If a Receiving Party receives materials that reasonably appear to be subject to an attorney-client privilege, the common interest privilege, work product protection or otherwise protected by a discovery privilege or immunity, the Receiving Party must refrain from further examination of the materials that may be privileged or protected, and shall immediately notify the Producing Party, in writing, that the Receiving Party possesses such material.

11.4. Nothing herein shall prevent the Receiving Party from challenging the propriety of the attorney-client privilege or work product immunity or other applicable privilege designation by submitting a challenge to the Court. If the underlying claim of privilege or protection is contested, the Parties shall comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B) and the Receiving Party may promptly seek a judicial determination of the matter pursuant to that rule (a “Privilege Motion”). Any Privilege Motion shall not assert as a ground for granting the motion the fact or circumstance of the production in this Action of the Discovery Material claimed to be privileged.

11.5. The Party asserting privilege retains the burden of establishing the privileged or protected nature of any Disclosed Privileged Information. Nothing in Paragraph 11 shall limit the right of any Party to petition the Court for an in camera review of the Disclosed Privileged Information.

12. OTHER PROCEEDINGS

If, at any time, any CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material in the possession, custody or control of any Party or person other than the Designating Party is subpoenaed or requested by any court, administrative agency, legislative body or other person or entity, before producing any CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Materials, the Party or person to whom the subpoena or request is directed shall provide prompt written notice to the original Designating Party. Should the Designating Party oppose the request for production of such documents or materials, the Party or person to whom the subpoena or request is directed shall not take any position concerning the propriety of such request or subpoena or the discoverability of the information sought that is adverse to the Designating Party unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. Other than the obligation to comply with these requirements, this Order is not intended to affect a Party's obligation to respond to such a subpoena or request.

13. CONCLUSION OF THE LITIGATION

13.1. The provisions of this Order shall continue to be binding after final termination of this Action. Within sixty (60) days after final conclusion of all aspects of this Action, including any appeals, any Party and all persons who received (or tendered to any other person) Discovery Material designated for CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY treatment (or any copy thereof) must, at the election of the Receiving Party, either: (a) return such Protected Material to the Producing Party or (b) certify in writing to Counsel for the Producing Party that the Receiving Party or such person(s) to whom Protected

Material had been tendered has destroyed those documents and materials and the portions of all other material containing or reflecting Protected Material.

13.2. The costs of return of Discovery Material to the Producing Party shall be borne by the Receiving Party. The costs of destruction of the documents and materials shall be borne by the Receiving Party. The costs associated with providing the aforementioned certification shall be borne by the certifying person(s).

13.3. Counsel for the Parties shall be permitted to retain copies of court filings, papers served in connection with this Action, transcripts (including deposition transcripts), exhibits, correspondence and work product containing or reflecting CONFIDENTIAL, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY Discovery Material. The Receiving Party's reasonable efforts shall not require the return or destruction of materials that (i) are stored on backup storage media made in accordance with regular data backup procedures for disaster recovery purposes; (ii) are subject to litigation hold obligations; or (iii) are otherwise required by law to be retained. Backup storage media need not be restored or destroyed for purposes of returning or certifying destruction of materials, but any such materials retained in backup storage media shall continue to be treated in accordance with this Order.

14. OTHER

Non-waiver: Entering into, agreeing to and/or producing or receiving Protected Material or otherwise complying with the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order shall not:

a. Prejudice in any way the rights of any party to object to the production of any documents or information it considers not subject to discovery, or operate as an admission by any party that the restrictions and procedures set forth herein constitute adequate protection for any particular information deemed by any party to be Protected Material;
