17 Civ. 124 (LLS)

ORDER

Since only admissible evidence may be considered in ruling on a motion for summary judgment, and the proposed Daubert motions bear directly on the admissibility of expert evidence submitted in the parties' summary judgment briefing, it will be convenient and natural to consider Daubert matters concurrently with defendants' summary judgment motion.

Accordingly, both parties have leave to file their proposed Daubert motions.

So Ordered.
