RE: Coral Realty LLC, et al
 v. Federal Ins. Co., et al
 Docket No.: 1:17-cv-1007-LTS-BCM
 Our File No.: 15J125

Dear Magistrate Judge Moses:

Please treat this letter as Plaintiffs' motion to adjourn the due date for our joint letter due today and the conference scheduled for this Thursday June 17 respectively pursuant to the prior order of the Court.

As we previously explained, since our mediation, Coral and Federal have focused on resolving this litigation and we are at the culmination of these negotiations with an agreement in principle. We feel the resolution with Federal will allow us to better address the settlement of State claims. However, due to the lengthy negotiations, coupled with the untimely death of a teenage member of Mr. Podolsky's immediate family this past Friday in an automobile accident, additional time would be helpful.

Based upon the foregoing we are requesting a 2 week extension of the due date for the joint report and an adjournment of Thursday's conference call. We believe that we will have finalized the Federal settlement by then. Federal concurs in this request and several (but not all) counsel in the State case have consented as well.

Sincerely,

WILKOFISKY, FRIEDMAN,
KAREL & CUMMINS
