PROTECTIVE AGREEMENT AND ORDER

WHEREAS, Plaintiff Bloomfield Investment Resources Corp. (“Plaintiff”) served a subpoena duces tecum dated August 2, 2023 (the “Subpoena”) on non-party JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“JPMCB”) in this action (the “Action”); and

WHEREAS, the Subpoena calls for the production of documents in JPMCB’s possession containing information that includes confidential information; and

WHEREAS, compliance with the Subpoena will take place in New York;

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Plaintiff and JPMCB, by and through their respective undersigned counsel, as follows:

1. This Protective Agreement and Order applies to “Confidential Information,” as defined below, produced or otherwise disclosed by JPMCB to Plaintiff in response to the Subpoena and to any future subpoena that Plaintiff may serve on JPMCB in connection with the Action.

2. The term “Confidential Information” as used in this Protective Agreement and Order means any record, spreadsheet, or other document produced by JPMCB in response to the Subpoena that JPMCB, after reviewing such record, spreadsheet or other document, reasonably and in good faith believe constitutes or reveals: (i) confidential trade secrets, proprietary business information, non-public personal, client, or customer information concerning individuals or other entities or items; or (ii) information protected from disclosure by any relevant federal, state or foreign data-protection laws. “Confidential Information” as used in this Protective Agreement and Order shall not include information derived exclusively from any public source, regardless of whether such information is duplicative of the information contained in the documents produced by JPMCB. JPMCB may designate any such record, spreadsheet, or other document for protection under the terms of this Protective Agreement and Order by affixing the term “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains confidential material.

3. If Plaintiff contends that materials designated by a producing bank should not be deemed Confidential Information under this Protective Agreement and Order, it shall notify JPMCB of its position within 14 days from the receipt of such designation. Upon JPMCB’s receipt of such notification, Plaintiff and JPMCB shall meet and confer within seven days to attempt to resolve the dispute by agreement. If Plaintiff and JPMCB are unable to resolve the dispute by agreement, they shall proceed under Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

4. Plaintiff shall not use or disclose the Confidential Information for any purpose other than (i) in actions to enforce Plaintiff’s judgment dated June 1, 2023 entered against Defendant Elliot Daniloff in the Action (the “Judgment”); (ii) in garnishment, execution or similar proceedings that Plaintiff may commence in the future to enforce the Judgment; or (iii) in any appeals of the foregoing actions and proceedings (collectively, the “Judgment Enforcement Proceedings”).

5. Documents produced by JPMCB and designated Confidential may be filed with the Court in connection with any application, motion, hearing, trial or other proceeding in any Judgment Enforcement Proceeding, but only on the condition that confidential identifying information – i.e. account numbers, codes, social security numbers, taxpayer identification numbers, employer identification numbers, passwords, and information that may be used for identity theft – be redacted from such documents, before they are filed, to the extent such information is not necessary to advance the purpose or objective of the filing. To the extent Plaintiff intends publicly to file Confidential Information without redacting confidential identifying information, contending that such confidential identifying information is relevant or necessary, Plaintiff shall contact JPMCB’s counsel and provide JPMCB forty-eight hours to review the document(s) before the Confidential Information is filed. If JPMCB notifies Plaintiff’s counsel of a dispute under this paragraph within that forty-eight hour period, JPMCB shall have the right to apply to the Court, within five business days and before the Confidential Information is filed, for an order sealing or barring the public filing of the Confidential Information. Plaintiff shall not file the Confidential Information until after the Court has ruled on any such application (if any). Plaintiff and JPMCB agree to act in good faith to try to resolve any dispute under this paragraph without having to involve the Court.

6. Nothing in this Confidentiality Agreement will prevent any person subject to it from producing any Confidential Information in its possession in response to a lawful subpoena or other compulsory process, or if required to produce by law or by any government agency having jurisdiction; provided, however, that such person receiving a request will provide written notice to the producing person at least 10 days before any disclosure or otherwise with as many days’ notice as is permitted by the time allowed under the request. Upon receiving such notice,

JPMCB shall have the right to oppose compliance with the subpoena, other compulsory process, or other legal notice if the producing person deems it appropriate to do so.

7. Once Confidential Information is produced, it may be disclosed, summarized, or otherwise communicated in whole or in part only to the following persons, who may make use of such information only in connection with the Action and any Judgment Enforcement Proceedings:

- a. Counsel who represent parties in the Action and Judgment Enforcement Proceedings, and employees and agents of such counsel assisting in the preparation or conduct thereof for use in accordance with this Protective Agreement and Order, but only after such counsel have agreed to be bound by this Protective Agreement and Order;
- b. Experts or consultants assisting counsel for those parties in the Action and Judgment Enforcement Proceedings, but only after such experts or consultants have signed the agreement, annexed as Exhibit A, to be bound by this Protective Agreement and Order, as set forth in Section 8 below;
- c. Potential, anticipated and actual witnesses, and their counsel, in the Action or the Judgment Enforcement Proceedings, but only after such witnesses have signed the agreement, annexed as Exhibit A, to be bound by this Protective Agreement and Order, as set forth in Section 8 below;
- d. The Court in the Action and any court in the Judgment Enforcement Proceedings; and
- e. Court reporters employed in connection with the Action or any Judgment Enforcement Proceedings.

8. Before counsel may show or disclose Confidential Information pursuant to Section 7 to any witness, expert or consultant, except at trial, that witness, expert or consultant shall be provided a copy of this Protective Agreement and Order and must sign the agreement, annexed as Exhibit A, to be bound by this Protective Agreement and Order. Any disclosure of Confidential Information to witnesses, experts or consultants pursuant to Section 7 must be useful or necessary, in the opinion of counsel, for the preparation for or conduct of the Action or any Judgment Enforcement Proceedings.

9. The inadvertent disclosure by JPMCB of any document or information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product, or similar ground on which disclosure of such information should not have been made, shall not be construed as a waiver of such claim, and JPMCB shall have the right to have the document or information returned to its counsel. Nor shall this Protective Agreement and Order be construed as requiring JPMCB, or any of their respective branches or subsidiaries, to commit any act that would violate any domestic, federal, state or local law, or any law of a foreign jurisdiction. The inadvertent disclosure in violation of any such law shall not be considered a waiver of JPMCB's right to assert the privilege or other ground on which the document(s) or information in question should not have been disclosed, or of its right to a return of the document(s) or information.

10. The obligations under this Protective Agreement and Order shall survive the termination of the Action and of any Judgment Enforcement Proceedings and shall continue to bind Plaintiff, JPMCB, and the parties to whom Confidential Information is disclosed and who become bound by this Protective Agreement and Order.

11. This Protective Agreement and Order shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the substantive laws of the State of New York without giving effect to New York's conflict-of-law principles. Any motion or proceeding related in any way to this Protective Agreement and Order, or to any dispute as to JPMCB's compliance with the Subpoena, shall be brought in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The parties hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive the right to contest personal jurisdiction or venue in the Southern District of New York

12. Upon execution by the parties' respective counsel, and before being so-ordered by the Court, this Protective Agreement and Order shall be binding upon the parties and shall be deemed to have the same effect as a court order.

13. The parties may sign this Protective Agreement and Order digitally, and email copies of signatures shall have the same force and effect as original signatures.

14. JPMCB's entry into this Protective Agreement and Order shall not be deemed a waiver of any of its objections or defenses to the Subpoena or to any subsequent subpoena that Plaintiff may serve on JPMCB.
