IN RE:

GENERAL MOTORS LLC IGNITION SWITCH LITIGATION

14-MD-2543

This Document Relates To:
Snodgrass v. General Motors LLC, 17-CV-6273

ORDER

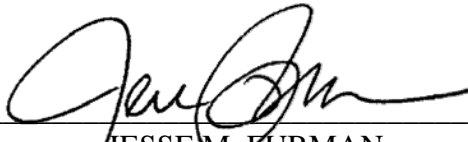

-----x
JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

Today, the Court received an e-mail from Plaintiff Gail Martin, who voluntarily dismissed her claims on December 20, 2019, see 17-CV-6273, ECF No. 98, in which she appears to complain about the amount of her settlement and delay in payment (and makes some allegations about counsel's handling of the matter). The Court cannot and will not respond to Ms. Martin because she is represented by counsel and because it is inappropriate for the Court to communicate with an individual party, let alone to do so on an informal basis.

No later than July 3, 2020, Ms. Martin's counsel — which appears to be Langdon & Emison LLC — shall provide a copy of this Order to her and file proof of such service. Further, counsel shall attempt to provide Ms. Martin with whatever assistance she needs (and, if appropriate, advise her that she may retain other counsel or proceed pro se, that is, without counsel). Finally, counsel should advise Ms. Martin that all communications with the Court should be through counsel. If Ms. Martin elects to proceed without counsel, communications should be mailed to the Pro Se Intake Unit, 40 Centre Street, Room 105, New York, NY 10007.

SO ORDERED.
