Re: Coventry Capital US LLC v. EEA Life Settlements, Inc., et al.,
 No. 17 Civ. 7417 (JLR) (SLC)

Dear Judge Cave:

We write respectfully on behalf of Defendant EEA Life Settlements, Inc. to request permission to file under seal Exhibit A, Dkt. 384-1, appended to EEA's letter in opposition to Plaintiff Coventry Capital US LLC's motion to compel, Dkt. 384.

When considering a motion to seal, despite the presumption in favor of public access, the court must consider the “the privacy interests of those resisting disclosure.” Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 120 (2d Cir. 2006). Courts will commonly grant a request to seal documents containing “proprietary business information, such as internal analyses, business strategies or customer negotiations” because disclosure of that information could “provide competitors with an unearned advantage.” SEC v. Telegram Grp., Inc., No. 19 Civ. 9439, 2020 WL 3264264, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. June 17, 2020). Moreover, courts “regularly seal” medical information of non-parties because of the “significant privacy rights to [] medical information.” Robinson v. De Niro, No. 19 Civ. 9156, 2022 WL 2712827, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. July 13, 2022). Because of those significant privacy rights, the Local Rules of this Court advise that such information “not be in the public file.” S.D.N.Y. Loc. R. 5.2, 2013 Committee Note.

Exhibit A is Coventry's requests for admission to EEA. Those requests reveal confidential information pertaining to: (1) EEA's and Coventry's negotiations and their respective valuations of EEA's life-settlement portfolio; and (2) diagnoses of individuals whose policies were in EEA's portfolio. As such, we request that the Court permit Exhibit A, Dkt. 384-1, to remain under seal.

We thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Lauren F. Dayton
