WILL
OF
NELLE HARPER LEE

I, Nelle Harper Lee, domiciled in Monroe County, Alabama, being eighteen years of age or older, hereby make, publish and declare this to be my will and hereby revoke all prior wills and codicils.

ARTICLE 1
Probate Estate

In this will, the term "my probate estate" means all property, real and personal and wheresoever situated, that I own at my death or to which I or my estate or any personal representative of mine may be or become entitled, and I intend to dispose of all thereof by this will. However, the term "my probate estate" shall not include (i) any assets which provide for a beneficiary designation (e.g., IRA's and insurance policy proceeds) and name beneficiaries other than my estate or my personal representative, or (ii) any assets that are owned jointly with right of survivorship between me and another person who survives me. Also, I do not by this will exercise any power of appointment of which I may be or become the donee; accordingly, the term "my probate estate" shall not include any property that may be subject to any such power of appointment.

ARTICLE 2
Payment of Debts, Administrative Expenses and Taxes

Section 2.1 - I direct my personal representative to pay the following items out of my probate estate: (1) the expenses of my last illness; (2) my funeral and burial expenses, including the costs of any grave marker or tombstone; (3) the expenses of administering my estate, including the reasonable expenses of safekeeping and delivery of estate property; (4) my debts, except such debts of mine secured by pledge, mortgage or other security interest not by their terms due at my death that my personal representative may deem unnecessary or undesirable to pay; and (5) the amounts of all written pledges of mine for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, whether or not the same shall constitute debts, that are current but unpaid at my death, and, accordingly, I give the respective amounts of such pledges, free of any Death Taxes described in this article, to those persons, organizations and entities to whom those pledges shall at my death purport to be payable, and I empower my personal representative to determine what shall constitute a "pledge" and a "religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational" purpose, and what is "current" as those quoted terms are used in this article.

Section 2.2

(A) Subject to paragraph (E) of this section, I direct that all transfer, estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes (exclusive of any tax imposed on a direct skip under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code) and any interest and penalties thereon (collectively "Death Taxes"), payable by reason of my death with respect to property passing under this will or the 2011 Mockingbird Trust shall be paid as an administration expense out of my residuary estate (as defined in Article 4), and if the assets in my residuary estate are inadequate, then such Death Taxes shall be paid from the assets of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust. Except as otherwise specifically provided hereinafter, for all purposes of this will, the "2011 Mockingbird Trust" shall mean the Trust created under that certain Indenture of Trust dated April 11, 2011 entered into between me, as Grantor, and me, Tonja B. Carter and Samuel L. Pinkus, as Trustees, (i) as such Trust has been amended, revised and/or restated from time to time prior to the execution of this will, and (ii) as such Trust may be amended, revised and/or restated by me from time to time concurrently with or after the execution of this will. In this regard, immediately prior to the execution of this will, I have also executed a Second Amended and Restated Indenture of Trust, which amends and restates the 2011 Mockingbird Trust in its entirety. Accordingly, it is my intention (and I direct) at the time of the execution of this will for the terms set forth in such Second Amended and Restated Indenture of Trust to constitute the terms of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust.

(B) Subject to paragraph (E) of this section, I direct that all Death Taxes resulting from the inclusion in my gross estate of gift taxes with respect to gifts made by me within three years of my death shall be paid as an administration expense out of my residuary estate, and if the assets in my residuary estate are inadequate, then such Death Taxes shall be paid from the assets of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust.

(C) I direct that all Death Taxes payable by reason of my death with respect to any property passing under a qualified retirement plan of any type or an individual retirement account (each referred to as a "Retirement Plan Account") shall be apportioned against and paid by the persons or entities in possession of such property or benefitted thereby, in an amount equal to the amount by which the Death Taxes payable by reason of my death are increased as a result of the inclusion of such other property in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

(D) I direct that all Death Taxes payable by reason of my death with respect to all property other than that described in paragraphs (A), (B) and (C), including any tax imposed on a direct skip under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be apportioned against and paid by the persons or entities in possession of such property or benefitted thereby, in an amount equal to the amount by which the Death Taxes payable by reason of my death are increased as a result of the inclusion of such other property in my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes; provided, however, that if payment of Death Taxes from such property is directed by any instrument governing such property or by operation of law, then the amount apportioned against such persons or entities shall only be the difference, if any, between the amount determined above and the amount paid as directed by such governing instrument or by operation of law.

FILED - 02/29/2016 05:11:26 PM
GREG NUGERIS, Judge of Probate, Monroe County, AL

(E) I direct that all Death Taxes which shall be paid out of my residuary estate or from the assets of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust pursuant to this section shall first be paid out of the assets of my residuary estate or the 2011 Mockingbird Trust which do not consist of Literary Property (as defined in Section 6.2), to the extent practicable as determined in the discretion of my personal representative. In this regard, I direct that if the assets of my residuary estate which do not consist of Literary Property are inadequate to pay such Death Taxes, then the assets of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust which do not consist of Literary Property shall next be used to pay such Death Taxes (to the extent practicable as determined in the discretion of my personal representative), before any Literary Property which is part of my residuary estate or the 2011 Mockingbird Trust is used to pay Death Taxes. For purposes of this section, any proceeds received from Literary Property (including without limitation upon the sale of any Literary Property) by my personal representative shall not be deemed to be Literary Property, the effect of which is that Death Taxes may be paid out of the proceeds received from Literary Property pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Section 2.3 - I direct that any income taxes imposed upon or chargeable to the income of my estate shall be apportioned to and deducted from the shares of all beneficiaries (exclusive of any charitable beneficiary) having an interest in such income, in such equitable manner as my personal representative may determine; and any such determination by my personal representative shall be conclusive and binding as to all persons or entities interested in my estate.

ARTICLE 3 Additional Funds

If my probate estate or my residuary estate, as the case may be, shall not be adequate to provide for the payment of the expenses, debts, taxes and other items to be paid from my probate estate or my residuary estate as provided in any provision of Article 2, my personal representative shall provide a written notarized statement of the funds needed to make such payments to the Trustee of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust. Upon delivery of such statement, my personal representative shall be entitled to receive, as promptly as possible, funds from the 2011 Mockingbird Trust to provide for such payments.

ARTICLE 4 Gift of Residuary Estate

So much of my probate estate as shall remain after the satisfaction of the preceding articles of this will, including any lapsed bequests and devises hereinbefore made, shall constitute my "residuary estate," from which Death Taxes, if any, shall be paid as provided in Section 2.2. Effective at my death, I give and devise my residuary estate remaining after payment of such Death Taxes to the Trustee of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust, to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the provisions of such Trust. If, for any reason, such gift of my residuary estate shall be ineffective, then I give and devise my residuary estate to be held in a testamentary trust in accordance with the terms, conditions, and fiduciary powers set forth in that document titled "Second Amended and Restated Indenture of Trust" executed by me on the same date on which I execute this will (which document is described in Section 2.2(A)), and I appoint the individual then-serving as my personal representative as the trustee of such testamentary trust.

ARTICLE 5
Appointment of Personal Representative

Section 5.1 - I appoint Tonja B. Carter ("Tonja Carter") as personal representative of this will. If Tonja Carter shall not survive me or shall become incapable or shall fail for any reason to act as personal representative, then I appoint my nephew, Henry Herschel Conner III ("my nephew Hank"), as personal representative of this will. If both Tonja Carter and my nephew Hank shall not survive me or shall become incapable or shall fail for any reason to act as personal representative, I appoint my nephew, Edwin Lee Conner, as personal representative of this will.

Section 5.2 - Except as otherwise specifically provided in this will, references in any other article of this will to "my personal representative" shall be deemed to designate all parties, whether one or more, from time to time in fact qualified and acting as a personal representative of this will. In addition, any reference to "executor" in the Code of Alabama shall be deemed to refer to my personal representative.

Section 5.3 - The incapacity of an individual to serve as a personal representative hereunder may be determined by the attending physician of such individual, and such determination of incapacity shall be evidenced by a written statement from such attending physician indicating that such individual does not have the mental or physical capacity to serve as a personal representative under this will.

ARTICLE 6
Reliance upon Literary Agent of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust with respect to Literary Property

Section 6.1 - My personal representative may rely and take action upon the advice of the Literary Agent, if one exists, of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust with respect to any Literary Property which constitutes part of my probate estate. In this regard, I have provided in the 2011 Mockingbird Trust that the Trustee of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust may rely and take action upon the advice and directions of the Literary Agent with respect to the Literary Property of the 2011

FILED - 02/29/2016 05:11:40 PM
GREG MORRIS, Judge of Probate, Monroe County, AL

Mockingbird Trust, and may delegate to such Literary Agent the right and power to manage and otherwise deal with Literary Property that is owned or held by the 2011 Mockingbird Trust, or to which the 2011 Mockingbird Trust is otherwise entitled. With respect to any action concerning Literary Property which is taken by my personal representative in reliance upon the advice of the Literary Agent and which does not constitute gross negligence, willful neglect or self-dealing on the part of my personal representative, I direct that my personal representative (who is not also the Literary Agent) shall not be liable to any interested person under this will or the 2011 Mockingbird Trust for or by reason of any such action so taken.

Section 6.2 - For purposes of this will, the term "Literary Property" shall refer to and include the following, whether owned by or held in my probate estate directly or indirectly (e.g., if Literary Property is held in a limited liability company, which in turn is owned by my probate estate): all rights, title and interests in and to the novels, To Kill a Mockingbird and Go Set a Watchman, and any and all other literary works and properties of any kind and nature written and created by me, whether alone or in collaboration with others, including without limitation, all copyrights therein (and any and all renewals and extensions thereof), all rights and proceeds under contract for the publication, performance or other exploitation thereof, including royalty rights, and all other rights and causes of action of any kind or nature at any time existing in connection therewith, or which may arise or accrue therefrom, whether such literary works or properties shall be finished or unfinished, or published or unpublished, at the time of my death, including the rights to secure, extend or renew any copyrights therein and the right to exercise all rights with respect to the copyrights of any literary works or properties. The foregoing shall include, without limitation, the rights to publish or otherwise exploit the physical property as well as literary works and properties. For all purposes of this will, I direct that my personal representative shall use a broad definition of "Literary Property" when determining what shall constitute "Literary Property."

ARTICLE 7 Powers of Personal Representative

In the course of the administration of my probate estate, I declare that my personal representative shall have and may exercise, publicly or privately, personally or by attorney or agent, without prior approval, consent or order of any court and, unless otherwise explicitly provided in this will, without previous or other notice to or consent by anyone, each and all of the following powers, discretions and immunities in addition to any other powers, discretions and immunities that may be conferred upon my personal representative by law or otherwise, all of which shall be broadly construed:

(1) To receive from any source, retain, acquire, make, sell or dispose of investments in any property of any kind, nature, character or description, whether real, personal or mixed and wheresoever situated, whether domestic, foreign or alien, and whether or not any of the same may be deemed permissible for personal representatives under the constitution or laws of any state or the United States, under the rules of any court or under any rule of policy anywhere, specifically including, but without limitation thereto, investments in any limited partnerships or other pass-through taxable entities, investments in regulated investment companies or other mutual funds, investments in hedge funds and similar types of investments, interests in any common trust fund maintained by any entity serving as personal representative, and investments in any stock or other securities of any entity serving as personal representative or of any holding company or other company owning stock in any entity serving as personal representative or otherwise directly or indirectly affiliated therewith, provided, however, that no new investment shall be made voluntarily in any stock or other securities of an entity serving as personal representative or of any affiliate thereof except by the exercise by my personal representative of rights received by it as personal representative of stock or securities forming a part of the probate estate under this will;

(2) To invest in the securities of new ventures, commodities, gold, silver and other precious metals, foreign securities, foreign currencies, oil, gas, mineral, timber and other interests in natural resources, futures contracts, spot contracts, puts, calls, straddles, short and long contracts, any form of option agreements, repurchase agreements, financial agreements of any nature whatsoever, and to engage in any form of investment or investment strategy whatsoever;

(3) To acquire or dispose of any asset of my probate estate, including real property in Alabama, another state or any other jurisdiction, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale; and manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, change the character of, or abandon any asset of my probate estate;

(4) To copyright, renew or otherwise take action regarding any copyrightable work in the name of my probate estate (or in such other name on behalf of or for the benefit of me or my probate estate), including any work which is part of my Literary Property, (ii) to exploit in any manner any such copyright, for the benefit of my probate estate, and (iii) to authorize the use of such part or all of any copyrightable work, or any rights arising by reason of any copyright, in any manner for the benefit of my probate estate;

(5) To retain, make, hold or dispose of investments and reinvestments without regard to any actual or potential lack of diversification of such investments;

(6) To hold any or all stock, securities, or other paper whatever in bearer form; or to hold any or all such stock, securities, interests of ownership or other paper or any or all personal or real property in the name of any personal representative of mine or in the name of some other person, organization or entity, all without disclosing any fiduciary relationship;

(7) To lease, as lessor or lessee, with or without options to purchase, renew or otherwise, grant easements over, make any agreements or contracts whatever with respect to, grant options upon, sell, exchange or in any other way dispose of, convey or transfer, all or any part or asset of my probate estate for such consideration, on such terms and conditions, and for such period(s) of time (even though such period(s) may or does or do extend beyond the administration of my estate) as my personal representative may deem desirable;

(8) To convert any property, whether real, personal, or mixed in any ratio, into any other property, whether real, personal, or mixed in any ratio;

(9) To manage, operate and administer all real property and interests therein; to make repairs or alterations (ordinary or extraordinary), to erect, maintain, replace, tear down, demolish, and raze, any improvements, buildings or other structures placed or to be placed on any such real property;

(10) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use, make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving considerations; and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

(11) To drill, explore, test, mine or otherwise exploit oil, gas or other minerals or natural resources; to enter into leases and arrangements for exploration and removal of oil, gas or other minerals or natural resources; and to enter into pooling and utilization agreements;

(12) To conduct environmental assessments, audits, and site monitoring to determine compliance with any environmental law or regulation thereunder, to take all appropriate remedial action to contain, clean up, or remove any environmental hazard, either on my personal representative's own accord or in response to an actual or threatened violation of any environmental law or regulation; to institute legal proceedings concerning environmental hazards or contest or settle legal proceedings brought by any governmental agency concerned with environmental compliance or by a private party; to comply with any order of a governmental agency or court directing an assessment, abatement, or cleanup of environmental hazards; and to employ agents, consultants and legal counsel to assist and perform the above-described actions;

(13) To engage in, continue, dispose of or terminate any business, including farming and timbering, as a partner (general or limited), member, manager, sole proprietor, or any other capacity;

(14) To organize or join with others in organizing or in forming any business organization or entity for any business, property (including Literary Property) or assets of mine, to contribute any property (including Literary Property) or assets of mine to such business entity or organization in exchange for an ownership interest in such entity or organization, and to make changes from time to time, by organization, incorporation, agreement, sale, exchange, reorganization or dissolution of any character, in the style or form of the ownership or the conduct of any business entity or venture. At the time of the execution of this will, it is my expectation that I will transfer a significant part (if not all) of my Literary Property to a limited liability company ("LLC") of which the 2011 Mockingbird Trust is the sole owner, and for the 2011 Mockingbird Trust to enter into a limited liability company agreement which governs the activities and affairs of such LLC and its business. In the event that any Literary Property is part of my probate estate, then I specifically authorize my personal representative to do the following acts after my death during the administration of my probate estate, prior to the distribution of my probate estate: (i) to create an LLC of which my probate estate is the sole owner; (ii) to contribute any part (or all) of my Literary Property to such LLC (or another existing LLC) in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in such LLC; (iii) to enter into a limited liability company agreement which governs the activities and affairs of such LLC and its business (and which limited liability company agreement may provide that such LLC will only be dissolved by unanimous consent (or another percentage vote) of its members and/or will be either member-managed or manager-managed, and if manager-managed, that any manager(s) will only be removed by unanimous consent (or another percentage vote) of the members of the LLC);

(15) To manage, and in person or by general or limited proxy with or without full power of substitution to vote, all stock, securities and rights and interests evidenced by any other type of paper in any public or private corporation, partnership, trust or any other entity or organization, in respect of all matters ordinary and extraordinary, including without limitation: the borrowing of money; the issuance or retirement of any of such stock, securities, interests of ownership, and other paper; the sale, exchange or other disposition of some or all assets; conversion; consolidation; merger; recapitalization; liquidation; dissolution; any other transaction or reorganization of any character whatever, whether or not in bankruptcy; and to retain any or all property received as a consequence thereof, without limitation as to time;

(16) From time to time but within a time permitted by law, to assign and transfer to a voting trustee or trustees, who may be or include any personal representative of mine, any or all stock in any public or private corporation; to select the voting trustee or trustees; and to propose, negotiate, fix, consent to or change the voting trustee or trustees, the terms, and any or all conditions and provisions subject to which any such stock shall be held by the voting trustee or trustees;

ARTICLE 8
Administrative Provisions

Section 8.1 - In the administration of my estate, every personal representative may act personally or by, or in reliance upon the advice of, attorneys, accountants, investment advisors and managers, agents and other persons, organizations and entities and shall not be responsible to my estate or to any beneficiary of my estate for the acts or omissions or negligence of any thereof but shall be held only to the exercise of reasonable care in selecting, employing and retaining the same. Without limiting the generality of the first sentence of this section, I direct that while any individual is acting as a co-personal representative with any entity, such individual shall be authorized to direct my personal representative to employ any person, organization or entity to give investment advice and counsel to my personal representative, and my personal representative will employ such investment advisor and rely on such investment advisor's advice. If my personal representative shall employ an investment advisor recommended by such individual personal representative, I direct that the entity serving as a co-personal representative shall not be responsible to my estate or to any beneficiary of my estate either for the acts, omissions or negligence of such investment advisor, or for the selection, employment or retention of such investment advisor. Likewise, the individual personal representative shall not be responsible to my estate or to any beneficiary of my estate for the acts, omissions or negligence of such investment advisor, but shall be held only to the exercise of reasonable care in selecting, employing and retaining such investment advisor. Any personal representative under this will (including Tonja Carter, if she shall at any time be acting in such capacity) shall have the authority to retain for the provision of services, and to act in reliance upon the advice of, the firm or organization of attorneys of which Tonja Carter or another personal representative may from time to time be a member, partner or officer, or with which Tonja Carter or another personal representative may have or have had any professional or business connection. In the event the firm or organization with which any personal representative is affiliated is retained to provide services and/or advice to the personal representative under this will as provided in this section, I direct that such firm or organization shall be entitled to compensation or fees at its standard rates or charges for such services and advice, and such compensation or fees shall be in addition to any compensation paid to such individual for service as a personal representative under this will.

Section 8.2 - No person, organization or entity dealing with any personal representative of mine shall be under any obligation or liability to inquire into the authority of such personal representative to do any act done or sought to be done in the performance of any duty or in the exercise of any power or discretion conferred upon such personal representative; nor shall any person, organization or entity be under any obligation or liability to see to the proper application or disposition by any personal representative of the purchase price or other consideration for any property or to see to the proper disposition of any money or property lent or delivered to any personal representative.

Section 8.3 - No personal representative of mine shall be required (A) to make any bond for the faithful performance of any duties conferred upon such personal representative by this will or otherwise or (B) to make or file, for or in any court, any report, inventory, appraisalment, settlement or accounting.

Section 8.4 - If any person to whom any property is given or devised is at the time of the distribution of such property to him or her under any legal disability, such as minority or incompetence, according to the laws then in effect at such person's domicile, then my personal representative, in the discretion thereof, may deliver such property to such person, to the conservator of such person's property, to a custodian for the benefit of such person as may be designated by my personal representative under any applicable Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, or to some third party (including any personal representative of mine) for the benefit of such person; and the receipt of the person, organization or entity to whom such property is so delivered shall discharge my personal representative with respect to the property to which such receipt relates.

Section 8.5 - It is my desire to reduce the expenses of administration of my estate as much as possible and to provide for a consent settlement of my estate without notice or publication or posting pursuant to Section 43-2-506 of the Code of Alabama of 1975, as amended, which settlement shall be effective with respect to each legatee, distributee and devisee (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Beneficiary") under this will. Accordingly, I specifically authorize the Trustee of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust to approve a consent settlement of my estate on behalf of such Trust and all beneficiaries of such Trust; and such approval shall constitute the approval and effective consent of, and be binding on, such Trust and all beneficiaries of such Trust (whether any such beneficiary is born or unborn, is legally competent, a minor or legally incompetent, or has a present, future, vested or contingent interest in such trust), and no approvals or consents shall be required of any beneficiaries of such Trust to effectuate such consent settlement. The preceding sentence shall be applicable and effective notwithstanding that my personal representative and the trustee of such Trust are the same; provided, however, it shall not be applicable where the same entity (as opposed to an individual) is my sole personal representative and the sole trustee. I further direct that my personal representative, in a consent settlement of my estate, shall be fully discharged and relieved of any obligations and liabilities as such personal representative with respect to all Beneficiaries under this will, including the 2011 Mockingbird Trust and the beneficiaries of such Trust, and I direct that the Trustee of the 2011 Mockingbird Trust, in approving a consent settlement, shall be fully discharged and relieved of any obligations and liabilities with respect to the beneficiaries of such Trust. I have specifically included this provision in my will so that there may be a consent settlement of my estate in this manner.
