ORDER

18 Civ. 3698 (LGS) (GWG)

GABRIEL W. GORENSTEIN, UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Construing the plaintiff’s letter of June 8, 2020 (Docket # 379) as a motion for reconsideration of the Court’s Order of June 8, 2020 (Docket # 378), it is denied. To the extent it was intended to seek new forms of relief, it violates the directive in the Order of May 21, 2020 (Docket # 358).

On a separate point, the Court notes that this letter contains what is characterized as the home address of a City employee, as well as the birthdate of that individual. The Court directs the Clerk to substitute a version of Docket # 379 that redacts this individual’s home address and birthdate.

In addition, it is hereby ORDERED that plaintiff shall not file any papers in the future containing the home address, personal telephone number, personal email address, social security number, birthdate, names of relatives, or any other personal information (other than name and information relating to business or employment) of any person. To the extent in the future some original document relevant to this case contains such personal information, such information shall be redacted.

The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
