

2020, Plaintiff must file his proposed Third Amended Complaint and that “[t]here will be no further extensions of this deadline.” ECF 378. On June 3, 2020, Judge Gorenstein directed Plaintiff to file a single complaint that complies with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 8 and 10 as opposed to separate documents. ECF 371;

WHEREAS, on June 2, 2020, Plaintiff filed an emergency order to show cause for preliminary injunction and temporary restraining order, requesting that the Court issue an order granting him an exemption from the New York City-mandated curfew. ECF 370. On June 3, 2020, Plaintiff filed a letter to supplement the request. ECF 372. These submissions violated the December Order and the May Order. See ECF 373;

WHEREAS, on July 8, 2020, Plaintiff filed a letter on the docket stating that he was illegally prevented from participating in a remote public hearing conducted with the Mayor of New York City. ECF 387. If Plaintiff intended for this letter to be part of his proposed Third Amended Complaint, then the submission violates Judge Gorenstein’s June 3, Order directing him to file a single complaint. See ECF 371. If Plaintiff did not intend for this letter to be part of his proposed Third Amended Complaint, then it violates the December Order and the May Order. It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff shall comply with the December Order and the May Order. See ECF 286, 358. Plaintiff shall refrain from making further filings in this case, except with respect to the remaining claim, the motion to amend the complaint, upon direction from this Court or Judge Gorenstein, or for the purpose of filing an appeal. In light of Plaintiff’s prior disregard of the Court’s orders, if Plaintiff violates these court orders in the future by making impermissible filings, he is warned that this case will be dismissed with prejudice. “With prejudice” means that the claims in this case will be dismissed and he will not be able to file those claims again.

Nothing in this Order prohibits the Plaintiff from commencing a new case to raise matters unrelated to this case, or from making filings in any other cases that may already be pending.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this Order to the pro se Plaintiff.
