LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: Rosario v. City of New York, et al.,

18 Civ. 4023 (LGS)

Your Honor:

I am one of the attorneys assigned to represent the defendants in this action. Defendants write to respectfully request an extension of time for the parties to file their joint letter regarding the deposition designations for Lymari Leon and Fernando Torres. (ECF No. 376). Plaintiff's counsel consents to this request.

This request is made due to scheduling conflicts. The undersigned was assigned to the defense of a trial matter which began on June 21, 2022, and unexpectedly continued through July 1, 2022. The undersigned was subsequently on leave from July 5 through July 8, 2022, and not able to confer with opposing counsel regarding this letter. Defendants provided plaintiff with their counter-designations early this morning. In order to permit plaintiff time to respond to those counter-designations and the parties time to prepare a joint letter, defendants are respectfully requesting an enlargement of time to July 14, 2022.

Defendants thank for Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Hannah V. Faddis Senior Counsel

Special Federal Litigation Division
