Re: Accent Delight, et al. v. Sotheby's and Sotheby's, Inc., No. 18-CV-9011

Dear Judge Furman:

For today's Court conference, the parties request that the portion of the conference discussing the substance of the Monaco transcript referred to in Defendants' and Plaintiffs' letters (ECF ## 249, 252, 263) be closed to the public, and that this portion of the conference's transcript be sealed, pending a ruling on Plaintiffs' motion to seal. While Plaintiffs believe that their position that the valuations at issue are privileged could be argued and ruled on without discussion of the substance of the Monaco transcript, Defendants' view is that the substance of the transcript is integral to the discussion. For all the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' motion to seal (see ECF ## 252-253), we therefore request that this portion of the conference be closed to the public and that the corresponding portion of the transcript be sealed.

Respectfully,

/s/

Daniel J. Kornstein

c. All counsel of record (via ECF)

The Court will address the request to close portions of the conference scheduled for later today, April 27, 2021, at 4:00 p.m. during the conference. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 268. SO ORDERED
