E. Nature of the Proceedings and Summary of the Case and Relevant Facts

The above-captioned case is a civil lawsuit brought by Plaintiffs under the laws of the United States and United Kingdom seeking money damages for injuries resulting from the alleged theft and laundering of funds belonging to Plaintiffs. See Exhibit A (Amended Complaint). Plaintiffs allege that the Defendants laundered funds rightfully belonging to the Plaintiffs through various schemes in the United States. Defendant Felix Sater is a former longtime associate of Viktor Khrapunov, the former mayor of the City of Almaty, and his son, Ilyas. Defendant Daniel Ridloff is a former business associate of Sater. Defendant Bayrock Inc. is an entity established in the State of Delaware, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Sater. Defendant GHS is an entity established in the State of New York, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Sater. Defendant RRMI-DR LLC is an entity established in the State of New York, United States of America, and wholly owned and controlled by Ridloff. Defendant Ferrari Holdings LLC is an entity established in the State of New Jersey, United States of America. Defendant MeM Energy Partners LLC is an entity established in the State of Delaware, United States of America, and owned and controlled by Mendel Mochkin, an individual domiciled in the State of New York, United States of America.

Plaintiffs allege that Mukhtar Ablyazov, the former owner and Chairman of BTA Bank, and Viktor Khrapunov stole billions of dollars in Kazakhstan by abuse of their offices; Ablyazov through embezzlement from BTA Bank, and Viktor Khrapunov through corruption of his office as Mayor of Almaty. After Ablyazov fled to the United Kingdom, BTA brought a series of civil fraud actions against him, resulting in the issuance of a worldwide freezing order by the U.K. courts. Ablyazov repeatedly defied orders of the U.K. courts to disclose his assets, leading to his being sentenced to 22 months imprisonment for contempt. Ablyazov fled sentencing in the U.K. and went into hiding, and the U.K. courts awarded BTA billions of dollars in judgments against Ablyazov and his associates for their theft from BTA.<sup>1</sup> Ablyazov was subsequently discovered and arrested in France. He has since been released from French prison but remains in France, accepting service of process through his attorneys.

Plaintiffs have alleged that in an effort to evade the U.K. worldwide freezing orders, Ablyazov conspired with his son-in-law, Ilyas Khrapunov, to launder proceeds of his embezzlement from BTA Bank into the United States through numerous investment schemes. Plaintiffs allege that Defendants Sater and Ridloff spearheaded five of these schemes, only to later turn on Ablyazov and the Khrapunovs and retain a portion of the stolen funds for themselves. The Defendant entities also are alleged to have knowingly received stolen funds.

In connection with a related lawsuit in which Ablyazov is a defendant, this Court previously requested assistance from the Ministry of Justice of the French Republic with obtaining discovery from Ablyazov. *See City of Almaty, et ano. v. Plaintiffs and Defendants in the present lawsuit currently are engaged in discovery concerning their claims and defenses – where Ablyazov is a third-party witness. The Court accordingly has not addressed the merits of Plaintiffs’ allegations.

Plaintiffs contend that the information sought by this request is available to the Ministry of Justice of the French Republic. This Court respectfully requests that the French Republic act on this request expeditiously.
