Dear Judge Moses:

We represent the plaintiff NYC Image International, Inc. in the above-referenced action. We write with the consent of counsel for Defendants to jointly request an adjournment of the April 29, 2021 Settlement Conference scheduled for 2:15p.m. I have been unable to reach my client in anticipation of tomorrow's conference to discuss the letter submissions requested by Your Honor. In addition, the parties are continuing to engage in settlement negotiations in an effort to resolve this dispute.

We thank you for your consideration of the above motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Maryann C. Stallone

Application GRANTED. The April 29, 2021 settlement conference is adjourned sine die. The parties are reminded that "[r]equests to reschedule the settlement conference, or to modify the page limits, attendance requirements, or other provisions of this Order, must be made by letter-motion, filed via ECF in accordance with the Individual Practices of Judge Moses, as soon as the need for the adjournment or modification arises and in any event at least one week (seven calendar days) before the scheduled conference." (Dkt. No. 45 ¶ 7 (emphasis added).)

No later than May 19, 2021, the parties shall file a letter motion providing at least two dates on which all necessary parties and counsel are available for a rescheduled settlement conference.
