UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

In a letter appearing at Docket Entry No. 64, the plaintiff, who is no longer appearing pro se, requested, inter alia, that the Court provide pro bono counsel to him. Inasmuch as the plaintiff is no longer representing himself and has acquired counsel, he may not communicate with the Court directly; his communications with the Court must only be through his counsel. Therefore, the requests made by the plaintiff through Docket Entry No. 64 are denied.
