ORDER

Defendant having appeared and requested an evidentiary hearing on Plaintiff's motion for an order of attachment and expedited discovery, ECF No. 27, and Plaintiff having submitted a reply, ECF No. 29, it is hereby ORDERED that the show cause hearing scheduled for July 28, 2020, is ADJOURNED to August 6, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. The hearing shall take place using the Court's videoconferencing software. In advance of the hearing, the Court will provide the parties with information on how to appear by video, and will file public access information to the docket. The Court will also provide the parties with more detailed information on how the hearing will proceed.

It is further ORDERED that the temporary restraining order entered on Plaintiff's motion, ECF No. 12, shall remain in place until August 12, 2020, at 8:30 a.m. The Court finds that good cause exists under Rule 65(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to extend the TRO for an additional 14 days, because such time will allow the Court to consider the record and provide the parties with time to prepare for the August 6 hearing, and because the extension is supported by the reasons stated in the Court's decision granting the TRO. See In re Criminal Contempt Proceedings Against Gerald Crawford, Michael Warren, 329 F.3d 131, 136–39 (2d Cir. 2003) (holding that the TRO, extended for good cause pending resolution of the preliminary injunction proceedings, was a valid basis for appellants' contempt convictions); Armstrong v. Real Estate Int'l, Ltd., No. 05 Civ. 5383, 2006 WL 354983, at *2 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 14, 2006) (extending the TRO until the court issued its decision on the pending preliminary injunction motion); see also Charles Alan Wright & Arthur R. Miller, 11A Federal Practice & Procedure § 2953 (3d ed. 2016) (noting that a court may extend a TRO for good cause).

SO ORDERED.
