Honorable Magistrate Judge Katharine H. Parker
 United States District Court – Southern District of New York
 Daniel Patrick Moynihan – United States Courthouse

 New York, New York, 10007

Re: Eusebia Reneyda Cuello v. Healthfirst PHSP, Inc., No. 20-CV-10177 (JPO)
Request for an Adjournment of Case Management Conference & Fact Discovery Due Dates

Dear Magistrate Judge Parker:

I am counsel for Plaintiff Cuello in the above-referenced matter. I write to you with Defendant's consent pursuant to your Individual Rules to seek an adjournment of the April 28, 2021, case management conference and the fact discovery due dates.

This is my second request for an adjournment. The first request was due to a scheduling conflict, and the Court granted the adjournment. I seek this adjournment because currently all fact discovery, including depositions, are due by June 16, 2021, which I will not be able to meet. My practice experienced a very busy month of April and, forthcoming, will experience an equally busy month of May.

If your honor would prefer that these fact discovery due dates be addressed at the April 28, 2021, conference, counsels will be present. Otherwise, I request that the conference and due dates be moved back by five weeks, whereby the conference would be held on June 2, 2021, and the fact discovery deadlines, including depositions, be moved to July 21, 2021. Defendant's counsel consents to these proposed dates. Yet, if these proposed conference and discovery dates do not work for the Court, I request that the Court select the dates.

I thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ G. Oliver Koppell
