Re:   Chen v. Mayorkas, et al., No. 21 Civ. 1881 (VEC)

Dear Judge Caproni:

This Office represents the government in this action in which the plaintiff seeks an order compelling U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) to adjudicate his Application to Register Permanent Residence or to Adjust Status (Form I-485). On behalf of the government, I write respectfully to request an on-consent extension of time of fourteen days to respond to the complaint (i.e., from May 6 to May 20, 2021). I also respectfully request that the initial conference presently scheduled for April 30, 2021, be adjourned sine die.

The extension is respectfully requested because USCIS has received the plaintiff’s response to a Request for Evidence and the response is expected to be picked up by an adjudicator later this week, together with the relevant file. USCIS has informed this Office that it anticipates that it will take adjudicative action within the requested extended period, which potentially would render this action moot. This is the government’s first request for an extension of the deadline to respond to the complaint and to adjourn the initial conference. I apologize for making these requests after the submissions for the April 30 conference were due.

Plaintiff’s counsel consents to these requests.

I thank the Court for its consideration of this letter.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
United States Attorney
