Re: MSC Mediterranean Shipping Co. v. Baltic Auto Shipping, Inc. et al. 11/14/2023
21-cv-7660 (JHR)
Our Ref: 739-01

Dear Honorable Judge Parker:

We represent defendant Baltic Auto Shipping Inc. and, in conjunction with co-defendants Trips Logistics Corp., Marine Transport Logistics, Inc., Baltic Auto Shipping Corp. and International Auto Group (hereinafter "Transport Defendants"), write in response to the status report submitted by Plaintiff on Friday, November 10, 2023 [Dkt # 170]. Given the lack of progress in the Libyan Proceeding, we request that the Settlement Conference, now scheduled for December 6, 2023 [Dkt # 165] be adjourned sine die. As the parties stated in their September 12, 2023 letter [Dkt # 164], at this stage of the proceeding, without MSC having a rightful claim of indemnity and without certain discovery being conducted, the Transport Defendants are not prepared to offer any money toward settlement and thus believe a Settlement Conference would be fruitless.

Respectfully submitted,
