ORDERED.

RE: Upsolve, Inc. v. James, 22-CV-627 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

This Office represents the Attorney General in the above-captioned case. The current deadline for the Attorney General to answer or otherwise respond to the complaint is June 3, 2022. See 2/01/22 Minute Entry (extending answer deadline until 10 days after decision on Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction). The Attorney General respectfully requests that this deadline be extended until July 15, 2022.

The complaint in this matter contains 112 paragraphs, and an extension is needed so that the Attorney General can properly respond to the pleaded allegations. An extension is also appropriate given the important public policy issues at stake.

This is the Attorney General's second request for an extension of its time to answer, as this Office also orally requested a stay or extension of that deadline pending disposition of Plaintiff's preliminary injunction motion. Plaintiffs' counsel consents to the requested extension, and simply asked, in return, that the Attorney General consent to Plaintiffs' forthcoming motion to extend the deadline for filing the case management order until July 15, 2022. The Attorney General agrees to this condition.
