      Re: Atlantic Specialty Insurance Co. v. Royal Alliance Associates, Inc.
               No. 23 Civ. 9555-JGLC-GS – Motion to Redact

Dear Judge Stein:

      We write on behalf of Plaintiff Atlantic Specialty Insurance Co. ("Atlantic") and file this letter motion to redact certain information that District Judge Clarke has previously ordered be filed in redacted form in the Complaint pursuant to an Order dated December 12, 2023 (the "Order"). See Dkt. No. 19. Specifically, upon motion by Defendant Royal Alliance Associates, Inc. ("Royal Alliance"), District Judge Clarke ordered, in relevant part, the names of Royal Alliance's clients who commenced confidential arbitrations against it and the amounts of the related settlements to be redacted in the public version of the Complaint. Id.

      Accordingly, consistent with the Order, Atlantic now seeks an order permitting it to redact such information in its opposition to Royal Alliance's Motion to Compel Arbitration and Dismiss the Complaint, which has been filed simultaneously herewith.

   Respectfully submitted,

                              /s/ Ryan Weiner

                              Ryan Weiner

Application granted. The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's proposed redactions and the underlying, unredacted information in its opposition papers to Defendant's Motion to Compel Arbitration. (Dkt. Nos. 48-51). The redactions adhere to Judge Clarke's December 12, 2023 Order, which directed the parties to redact confidential settlement information. (Dkt. No. 19). Defendant did not submit any objection to Plaintiff's instant motion to seal. Accordingly, the Court permits Plaintiff to file its opposition papers in the proposed redacted form.

SO ORDERED:
