ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, District Judge:

Plaintiff moved for default judgment on its breach of contract claims against two defendants, Todos Medical USA, Inc. and Corona Diagnostics LLC. See Dkt. No. 56. The contract that Defendants allegedly breached is between Plaintiff and Todos Medical USA, Inc. See Dkt. No. 27 ¶ 13 (“Fosun Pharma entered into a distribution agreement with Defendant Todos Medical.”); see also Ex. A. Corona Diagnostics LLC does not appear to be a party to the contract.

If Plaintiff seeks a default judgment against Corona Diagnostics LLC on the breach of contract claim, Plaintiff should file supplemental briefing addressing the issue of how the Court could find Corona Diagnostics LLC in default for this claim given that Corona Diagnostics LLC does not appear to be a party to the contract. Plaintiff should file this supplemental briefing, if any, by no later than June 6, 2024 at 12:00 p.m. ET.

In addition, while the original complaint attached Exhibit A, the contract, see Dkt. No. 1-1, the amended complaint was not filed with the contract attached, see Dkt. No. 27. Plaintiff is directed to refile the contract accordingly.

SO ORDERED.
