LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

This Order addresses two motions submitted by Plaintiff, who is proceeding pro se in this matter.

On November 23, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a motion to seal, requesting permission to file certain documents under seal as part of a contemplated petition for declaratory judgment. Dkt. No. 15 at 5. The motion to seal is denied as procedurally improper. A motion to file a document under seal in a separate declaratory judgment case may not be made in this case.

Plaintiff is advised that pro se litigants are permitted to file documents under seal or with redactions by motion made in the relevant case. However, sealing procedures can be complex, and attempting to file under seal comes with a risk that the documents will be filed publicly if the procedures are not properly followed. A party seeking to file under seal in this District should consult Section 6 of the SDNY Electronic Case Filing Rules and Instructions, available on the Southern District of New York website under the heading "ECF Rules and Instructions," as well as the individual practices of any judge to whom the case is assigned. If Plaintiff wishes to file a document under seal in this District, the parties are encouraged to confer regarding proper procedures to ensure that the document is not inadvertently disclosed.

On November 25, 2024, Plaintiff submitted a letter motion to compel Snowflake Inc. to produce authorities cited in its papers pursuant to Local Rule 7.2. Dkt. No. 16. The motion is denied. Local Rule 7.2 only reaches submissions to this Court. The relevant authorities are cited in Defendant's November 20 submission to the JPML, not any submission to this Court. Of course, Defendants' counsel is still permitted to provide Plaintiff with the relevant authorities, and the Court sees no apparent reason counsel would not do so.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff's motion to seal is DENIED and Plaintiff's motion to compel is DENIED. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close Dkt. Nos. 15 and 16.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 26, 2024 New York, New York
