REQUESTED BY: Securities and Exchange Commission
Maureen Peyton King
Securities and Exchange Commission
New York Regional Office
100 Pearl Street, Suite 20-100
New York, New York 10004

ISSUED PURSUANT TO: Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and applicable state law, NY CPLR 5201, et seq.

The Court having reviewed the Plaintiff's Application for Post-Judgment Writ of Garnishment, hereby issues this Post-Judgment Writ of Garnishment. The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") has information indicating that Garnishee may have possession, custody or control of property in which Defendant has a nonexempt interest.

Pending further order of this Court, Garnishee is hereby directed to withhold and retain any property in its possession, custody or control in which Defendant has an interest at the time this Writ is served or in which the Defendant may obtain an interest in the future, including Defendant's non-exempt disposable earnings. If Garnishee fails to withhold property in accordance with this Writ, Garnishee may be held in contempt by the Court or subject to other sanctions. This Writ of Garnishment is a continuing writ. Instructions are attached to and should be considered part of this writ.

To assist the Garnishee with its obligations under this Writ, the following information is provided:

INSTRUCTIONS TO GARNISHEE

You have been served with a Writ of Garnishment pursuant to Rule 69 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and applicable New York laws referenced herein. Please see the instructions below and the attached sample answer.

LEVY ON MONEY

Pursuant to NY CPLR § 5201, A money judgment may be enforced against any property which could be assigned or transferred, whether it consists of a present or future right or interest and whether or not it is vested, unless it is exempt from application to the satisfaction of the judgment.

IF YOU ARE DEFENDANT'S EMPLOYER

The amount of nonexempt earnings which may be withheld pursuant to a Writ of Garnishment is defined by the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1673, which provides generally that for a given week of employment, the lesser of 25% of disposable earnings for the week or that amount of disposable earnings for the week in excess of 30 times the minimum wage as set by 29 U.S.C. § 206(a)(1) may be withheld. The Secretary of Labor has promulgated regulations to assist you in calculating the maximum amount of nonexempt earnings that can be withheld. See Code of Federal Regulations, Title 29, Labor; Subtitle B, Regulations Relating to Labor; Chapter V, Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor; Subchapter D, Garnishment of Earnings; Part 870, Restriction on Garnishment.

An employer shall immediately give the designated defendant a copy of this order.

You may contact the attorney listed on the face of the Writ of Garnishment if you need additional assistance in determining the maximum amount of earnings to withhold. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1674, you may not discharge Defendant because his earnings have been garnished.

NOTICE AND INSTRUCTIONS TO DEFENDANT

A judgment was rendered against you in SEC v. Bronson, et al. (Case No. 12-cv-6421-KMK) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The SEC is seeking to collect the ordered disgorgement and prejudgment interest and post-judgment interest thereon through this Writ of Garnishment to Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., the Garnishee, by attempting to take your property, which may include a portion of your earnings, from the Garnishee.

DEFENDANT'S RIGHT TO OBJECT TO THE GARNISHEE'S ANSWER AND REQUEST A HEARING

You may notify the Clerk of the Court and the SEC, whose address appears above, in writing, within ten days after service of this notice upon you, why a wage garnishment Order should not be issued, and thereafter the application for the Order will be set down for a hearing of which you will receive notice of the date, time and place.

If you do not notify the Clerk of the Court and the SEC in writing of your objection, you will receive no further notice and the Order will be signed by the Judge as a matter of course. To object or apply for a reduction, file a written statement of your objection or reasons for a reduction with the Clerk of the Court and send a copy to the creditor's attorney or directly to the creditor if there is no attorney.

EXEMPTIONS

Personal property exempt from garnishment in New York may be found at NY CPLR § 5205.
