

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
ANGELO CARZOGGIO,

Plaintiff,

v.

VINCENT PAUL, COUNTY COURT OFFICER
SGT. #526; DEIDRE CARROLL, COUNTY
COURT OFFICER #7241; and JOHN
RHODES, COUNTY COURT OFFICER
#6059,

Defendants.

No. 17 Civ. 3651 (NSR) (PED)

CONFIDENTIALITY STIPULATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

WHEREAS, on May 15, 2017, Plaintiff Angelo Carzoglio ("Plaintiff") commenced the above-captioned action;

WHEREAS, on September 11, 2017, Defendants Sergeant Vincent Paul, Court Officer Deirdre Carroll, and Court Officer John Rhodes ("Defendants") filed their answers to Plaintiff's complaint;

WHEREAS, discovery and other proceedings in the Action may involve the production or disclosure of Confidential Material (as defined herein);

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and Defendants (the "Parties") agree that a protective order is necessary to assure appropriate protection of privacy interests and other legitimate interests in confidentiality;

WHEREAS, the Parties agree to the terms of this Order (the "Protective Order") to protect their confidential documents, information, and things;

WHEREAS, this Protective Order does not operate to mandate disclosure of any particular information and does not work to waive any objections any Party may have to the production of any particular information in response to a demand in this litigation; and

WHEREAS, good cause exists for the entry of this Protective Order;

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND ORDERED, PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 26(c), THAT:

1. This Protective Order shall govern the handling of all information and/or materials produced or disclosed during the course of the Action, by any Party or Non-Party, including but not limited to information produced or disclosed:
 - a. in any pleading, document, affidavit, affirmation, interrogatory answer, responses to requests for admission, brief, motion, transcript, or any other written, electronic, recorded or graphic material;
 - b. in testimony given in a deposition, court hearing, or trial, and any copies, or summaries of such information; or
 - c. through any manner or means of discovery, including the production or inspection of books, records, documents and tangible things, and entry onto any land or premises.
2. As used herein, the term "Discovery Material" refers to that information and/or materials described in 1(a)-(c) above. A Party that designates Discovery Material as Confidential ("Confidential Material") is a "Designating Party."
3. As used herein, "the Action" refers to all proceedings in the above-captioned case, including any appeals and the implementation of any remedy agreed to by the Parties or ordered by the Court.
4. The following documents and information produced or provided by the Parties or Non-Parties during the course of this Litigation, except information which is publicly available, may be designated by any Party as Confidential:
 - a. all documents and information containing personal health or disability information of any Party hereto, including but not limited to documents and information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") and records disclosed by a Party pursuant to any Authorization to Release Medical Records executed by the Plaintiff in this Litigation;

- b. all documents and information containing mental health or psychiatric information of any Party hereto, including but not limited to documents and information covered by HIPAA and records disclosed by a Party pursuant to any Authorization to Release Psychotherapy Notes executed by the Plaintiff in this Litigation;
- c. any documents and information which counsel for all Parties agree should be Confidential Material, subject to the provisions of paragraph 16 below;
- d. any other documents and/or information which counsel believes in good faith to be Confidential Material that can be protected from disclosure pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c);
- e. any Discovery Materials that the Court directs to be produced as Confidential subject to this Order; and
- f. testimony about the documents and information covered by Paragraph 4(a) – (e).

5. Any summary, compilation, notes, copy, electronic images, or database containing material and/or information designated as “Confidential” shall be subject to the terms of this Protective Order to the same extent as the material or information from which such summary, compilation, notes, electronic image, or database is made or derived.

6. Any Party producing Confidential Material described in paragraphs 4 and 7 of this Protective Order (“the Producing Party”) may designate such Discovery Material as Confidential. To designate the Discovery Materials as Confidential, the Producing Party shall mark the document as “CONFIDENTIAL” or with a similar legend. Where such marking of each piece of such material is impossible or impractical (such as productions of groups of documents in native form), the Producing Party shall designate in writing that information or material it regards as containing Confidential Material at the time of its production. In the case of any Discovery Material that is in the form of an audio or video recording (whether analog or digital) that cannot be designated “Confidential” in a practicable and cost-efficient manner, it shall be sufficient for the Producing Party to clearly mark the CD-ROM, DVD, or other physical medium containing such electronic data or documents with the appropriate designation. So-marked documents and the information contained therein, shall not be disclosed to anyone by the Party receiving the Confidential Material (“the Receiving Party”), except as provided in this Protective Order. The designation of Discovery Material as Confidential constitutes a representation by the Producing Party that counsel (or a pro se Producing Party) has adequately reviewed the Discovery Material and has determined that there is good cause for the designation under Paragraphs 4 or 7 of this Protective Order.

7. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or agreed to by the Parties in writing,

Confidential Material:

- a. shall be used by the Receiving Party solely for the purpose of, or in investigation and preparation for, proceedings, hearings, depositions, motions, and trial in this Action, and not for any other purpose, including in any other actions or claims interposed by the Plaintiff or any other person against the Defendant.
- b. Confidential Material may be disclosed by the Receiving Party only to:
 - i. The Parties;
 - ii. counsel representing the Parties, including in-house counsel, employees of counsel or counsel’s office, persons acting under counsel’s supervision, and employees and independent contractors of counsel who are directly involved in preparation or litigation of this Litigation;
 - iii. current and former employees of the New York State Unified Court System (“UCS”) who authored or would normally have access to such to the Confidential Materials during the course of their employment;
 - iv. any expert, consultant, or interpreter who has been retained by any Party for purposes of the Action and any necessary assistants or employees under the expert’s or consultant’s direct supervision;

- v. for purposes of investigation, preparation, deposition, or trial in this Action only, any deponent, witness, or potential deponent or potential witness who had familiarity with, or knowledge of the facts and circumstances to which the Confidential Material relates, including but not limited to current or former employees of UCS;
- vi. any other person as to whom the Parties agree in writing in accordance with the procedures set forth in paragraph 8 of this Protective Order;
- vii. court reporters and copying and duplication vendors, as necessary for the conduct of the Action; and
- viii. the Court and personnel employed by it.

8. Prior to the disclosure of any Confidential Material by a Receiving Party to a person identified in subparagraphs 7(b)(iv), 7(b)(v) or 7(b)(vi), counsel for the Receiving Party proposing to make such disclosure shall ensure that a copy of this Protective Order has been delivered to such person, and shall obtain that person's written agreement to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order and consent to the Court's jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing this Protective Order in the form of the Non-Disclosure Agreement annexed hereto as Appendix A. Counsel of record for the Receiving Party shall maintain a list of the names of all persons to whom such materials or information is disclosed and such list shall be available for inspection by counsel for the Designating Party upon order of the Court following a showing of good cause.

9. All Confidential Material shall be maintained by the Receiving Party in a confidential manner, and shall not be given, shown, or described to any persons other than those described in Paragraph 7, and only pursuant to the procedures in Paragraph 8.

10. A Receiving Party shall not file Confidential Material in the record of the Action or with the Court, except as follows:

- a. A Receiving Party may file unredacted Confidential Material in the record of this Litigation, or with the Court, upon written consent by counsel for the Producing Party, or as directed by the Court.

- b. A Receiving Party wishing to file Confidential Material without the written consent of the Producing Party may, at its election, either submit such documents with the Confidential Material redacted appropriately therefrom, or file such documents under seal to the extent the Court's practices and applicable rules permit. The Court retains discretion whether to afford confidential treatment to any document or information submitted to the Court in connection with any motion, application, or proceeding that may result in an order, ruling and/or decision by the Court.
- c. If a Receiving Party intends to use or elicit testimony concerning Confidential Material at trial or in open court on any occasion in a manner that will disclose the Confidential Material, the Receiving Party intending to so use Confidential Material shall comply with the Individual Practices in Civil Cases of Nelson S. Román, United States District Judge, the Local Rules of this Court, and applicable case law. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to restrict the Court's handling of Confidential Material or to cause a Party to be in breach of this Protective Order when acting in compliance with an order or direction of the Court.

11. Any Party, through its counsel, may designate as Confidential any deposition testimony that the Party believes in good faith discusses or discloses Confidential Material. Such designation may be made orally on the record of a deposition or by written notice within 30 days from the receipt of the final (i.e., not "draft" or "rough") transcript. The Party designating the Confidential Materials shall notify the court reporter of any confidentiality designations made after the final transcript is sent to the Parties. Upon receipt of a confidentiality designation, all Parties in possession of the deposition transcript shall be required to mark the designated pages accordingly on all copies of the transcript and treat those pages of the transcript appropriately. Subject to any requirements of the Court, the reporter for any deposition or hearing shall affix a legend of "CONFIDENTIAL" to pages that contain testimony designated as such. All transcripts shall be treated as "CONFIDENTIAL" until the time to designate has expired.

12. In the event that any Party obtains documents or information from a Party or Non-Party that it believes are confidential, any Party may designate such documents or information as Confidential Material pursuant to this Protective Order and it shall be treated as such in accordance with this Stipulation and Protective Order.

13. Any person making copies of Confidential Material must ensure that the copies adequately reflect the "Confidential" designation.

14. In the event of a disclosure to an unauthorized person of information designated under this Protective Order as Confidential, the disclosing party shall without delay (a) notify the Designating Party of the disclosure; (b) take all reasonable steps to recover the document, material or other information, and (c) report to the Designating Party immediately upon recovery or failure to recover the Confidential Material.

15. Inadvertent or unintentional failure to appropriately designate a document as Confidential shall not be deemed a waiver of a Party's claim of confidentiality. Such inadvertent failure to designate may be corrected by written notice to the other Parties and a supplemental production, each given as soon as practicable. Thereafter, the disclosed document or information shall be treated as Confidential Material.

16. A designation of Confidential Material by one Party shall not be deemed an acknowledgment of confidentiality by any other Party except for purposes of this Stipulation. At any time, a Party may object to a designation of Discovery Material as Confidential, in whole or in part, by communicating the objection in writing to the Designating Party and stating the reasons for the objection. Within fourteen (14) days after receiving an objection, the Designating Party shall respond in writing to the objecting Party, either withdrawing the designation or providing the reasons why the designation will not be withdrawn. If the objecting Party is not satisfied with the response, it may then move the Court for an order that the designation be removed. Such applications shall comply with Rule 3.A of Judge Román's Individual Practices in Civil Cases. The Party designating the material as Confidential shall bear the burden of establishing the confidentiality of the material at issue. The Discovery Material shall continue to be treated as Confidential while such a motion is pending. Any Party may request an in camera review of the information that is the subject of a dispute regarding a confidentiality designation.

17. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to limit, modify, or interfere in any manner with:

- a. The disclosure obligations of UCS under the New York Freedom of Information Law ("FOIL"), New York Public Officers Law Article 6, and related state law, regulations, and judicial decisions;
- b. The interpretation, application, and implementation by UCS, its public access officers, and state courts, of FOIL and related state law, regulations, and judicial decisions as well as other laws and regulations;
- c. UCS's or any of its employees' or officials' use in the ordinary course of business and as permitted by law outside of this Litigation of documents and information designated as Confidential in this Litigation that they legally have in their possession and which were not received through discovery in this Litigation or through releases or authorizations signed by Plaintiff;
- d. UCS's or any of its employees' or officials' use of its own Confidential and/or Discovery Material; or
- e. Notwithstanding any provision set forth herein, any Party or Non-Party may use without restriction information that is in its possession by means other than receipt of a production pursuant to this Protective Order, except that each Party and Non-Party is bound by any applicable rule or law regarding confidential treatment of such Confidential Material and/or Discovery Material used in this Litigation.

18. This Protective Order does not preclude a Party from raising or preserving objections to discovery and does not waive any Party's right to assert attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or any other privilege or immunity as the Action proceeds.

19. This Protective Order does not require production of documents as to which valid objections or privileges apply.

20. Fed. R. Civ. P 26(b)(5)(B) shall govern the return and use of materials produced in discovery which are subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial preparation material and the determination of claims of privilege and/or protection regarding such documents.

21. The production of privileged or work-product protected documents, information, or electronically stored information (“ESI”), whether inadvertent or otherwise, is not a waiver of the privilege or protection from discovery in this case or in any other federal or state proceeding. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum protection allowed by Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d).

22. If any Party is served with a subpoena or other notice in another proceeding or from a regulatory or other governmental agency requesting or compelling the production of materials produced by another Party and designated as Confidential, the Party so requested shall give immediate written notice to the Designating Party of such subpoena or other notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the Designating Party so notified shall bear the burden of opposing, if appropriate, the subpoena or other notice on grounds of confidentiality. In no event shall production or disclosure be made before reasonable notice is given to the Designating Party.

23. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prejudice the rights of any Party to contest the alleged relevance, admissibility, or discoverability of Confidential Material.

24. Nothing in this Protective Order shall negate or obviate any requirement or obligation of confidentiality independent of this Protective Order.

25. This Protective Order shall survive and remain in full force and effect after the termination of the Action. Neither the termination of this lawsuit nor the termination of employment of any person with access to any Confidential Material shall relieve such person from the obligation of maintaining the confidentiality of such material.

26. At the request of the Producing Party, upon the final conclusion of the Action, including any post-trial motions, appellate proceedings, and the period for implementation of any remedy agreed to by the Parties or ordered by the Court, all matter designated as Confidential (including all copies of such documents or identifiable portions thereof and all documents reflecting the documents or their contents) shall be returned promptly by the Receiving Party to the Producing Party, or, in lieu of their return, such documents may be destroyed (as by shredding). The Receiving Party must certify in writing the return or destruction of all such documents within thirty (30) days of the Producing Party's request for return or destruction. However, counsel for the Receiving Party may retain their work product, copies of court filings, and official transcripts with all exhibits thereto, provided any and all retained documents are kept confidential and will, along with the information contained therein, continue to be treated as Confidential pursuant to this Protective Order.

27. Non-Parties from whom discovery is sought by the Parties to this Protective Order may designate materials as Confidential, consistent with the terms of this Protective Order, provided that such Non-Parties agree in writing to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order prior to the production of any such materials by executing the Non-Disclosure Agreement annexed hereto as Appendix A. Under such circumstances, all duties applicable to the Parties that are signatories to this Protective Order shall apply to such Non-Parties.

28. This Protective Order is intended to be contractual in nature and may not be modified or changed orally. All changes or modifications shall be made in writing executed by the parties.

29. The Parties reserve the right to seek modification of this Protective Order by application to the Court for good cause shown.

30. Until such time as this Protective Order has been entered by the Court, the Parties agree that upon execution by the Parties, the Parties will treat this Protective Order as though it had been "So Ordered."

The undersigned counsel of record stipulate that the Court should enter the above Protective Order as an Order of the Court.

Dated: October 21 , 2019	Dated: October 31 , 2019
ANGELO CARZOGLIO	OFFICE OF THE NYS ATTORNEY GENERAL
By: Angelo Carzoglio Angelo Carzoglio	By: Michael A. Berg Michael A. Berg, Esq.
#18A0399 Attica Correctional Facility 639 Exchange Street, Box 149 Attica, NY 14011-0149	28 Liberty St. New York, New York 10005 Tel.: (212) 416-8651 michael.berg@ag.ny.gov
Plaintiff Pro Se	Attorneys for Defendant

SO ORDERED:

Nelson A. Román, U.S.D.J.

Dated: Dec. 10, 2019

White Plains, NY

Clerk of the Court directed to mail a copy of this Order to prose Plaintiff and show proof of service on the docket

APPENDIX A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I hereby acknowledge that I have read a copy of the Confidentiality Stipulation and Protective Order ("Protective Order") entered in the Action pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, styled Carzoglio v. Paul, NO. 17 Civ. 3651 (NSR) (PED), that I understand the terms thereof and agree to be bound by its terms, and that I submit myself to the jurisdiction of the Court, wherever I may be, for the enforcement of this Protective Order.

Signed under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States of America, this _____ day of _____, 20__.

Signature

Name (Printed)