ORDER

18 CV 4668 (VB)

On September 17, 2019, the Court granted in part and denied in part defendant’s motion to compel arbitration and dismiss or stay this action pending arbitration. (Doc. #84). The Court further ordered the parties to inform the Court by joint letter of the status of arbitration by December 31, 2019, every ninety days thereafter.

The parties have diligently complied with the Court’s September 17 Order. In light of the parties’ diligence, no further status updates are necessary.

Rather, the action will remain STAYED pending arbitration and the Court will administratively close the case. The parties may move by letter motion to reopen the case within thirty days of the conclusion of arbitration, if necessary.

The Clerk is instructed to administratively close this case, without prejudice to either party moving by letter motion to reopen the case within thirty days of the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings.<sup>1</sup>
