By letter dated July 2, 2020, petitioner’s appointed counsel seeks to be relieved based on a conflict of interest. (Doc. #463 in 14cr768-8).¹

The application is GRANTED. Daniel Habib, Sarah Baumgartel, and Allegra Glashausser, Esqs., as well as Federal Defenders of New York, Inc., are relieved as petitioner’s counsel. The Clerk is instructed to terminate their appearances from the above ECF dockets.

The Court notes its appreciation for the willingness of Federal Defenders to handle these post-Davis cases, and thanks these attorneys for their efforts.

By order dated, June 12, 2020, the Court directed that a further status report regarding the efforts of the parties to resolve this Section 2255 case by agreement be submitted by no later than August 10, 2020. That deadline remains in effect, absent further order of the Court.
