Subject: Updates from Experts on items requested

Alex:

Neil Broom - will have a response to your request to me tonight and I will forward that to you.
Larry Stewart - will provide everything on the list you requested except for his library of standards information. LaPorte has attempted to get that information from him before when opposing him in cases. Not only is it proprietary to Mr. Stewart's business, he obtains the standards under agreements from the manufacturers that he is not to disseminate that information. If there is some reason Defendants need to confirm he has that library of standards perhaps we can work out a walk through of those items by an appropriate expert.
Blanco - You didn't request anything from him. The list of all the handwriting exemplars he used are within his report for both Zuckerberg and Ceglia. There are no additional exemplars to provide to you.
Jerry Grant - Most of his response will be, as we discussed, a clarification of the misunderstanding from your review of his report.

Dean.
