Dear Mr. Shaman:

We write in response to your letter dated today, August 3, 2011.

Plaintiff has designated as "Confidential" each and every document and/or item of data listed on the privilege log you sent on August 2, 2011. These blanket confidentiality designations are improper. To be clear, we object to each and every confidentiality designation and request that Plaintiff remove all confidentiality designations immediately. As before, should you refuse or fail to respond, we intend to seek judicial intervention.

Very truly yours,

Orin Snyder
